NOTIFICATION.

The 22nd March 1880.—The following rules framed under Section 32 of the Bengal License Act, 1880, are published for general information.

A. MACKENZIE,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Rules for the Administration of the Bengal License Act, under Section 32 of Act II (B C.) of 1880.

Persons liable to taxation.

1. Every person carrying on any trade, dealing, or industry, whose annual earnings from such trade, dealing, or industry amount to Rs. 500 or upwards, must take out and pay for a license under this Act.

Collective net profits to be taxed.

2. A person who carries on more than one trade, dealing, or industry is to be taxed, not separately on the profits from each trade, dealing, or industry, but on the collective net profits derived from all such trades, dealings, or industries.

Designation of license.

3. When a person or firm carries on two or more trades, dealings, or industries coming under more than one designation, the assessment will be made with reference to the total profits from all such trades, dealings, or industries, but it is within the discretion of the Collector to determine under which particular designation the license will be granted.

License to be taken out in the district in which principal place of business is situate.

4. A person who carries on his trade, dealing, or industry in more than one district need only take out a license in the district in which his principal place of business is situate. When any person liable to assessment is known to carry on business in any other district, the Collector must communicate with the Collector of that other district in order to the formation of an estimate of the annual profits of such person and the determination of his principal place of business. In the event of any dispute arising regarding the district in which the principal place of business is situated, the Collectors will, if their districts are situated in the same division, refer the question for the decision of the Commissioner; otherwise they will apply direct to the Board for orders. Commissioners and the Board are hereby respectively empowered under section 6 of the Act to decide all such questions duly referred to them. The Lieutenant-Governor is however pleased to declare as a general rule that the ordinary place of residence of the person assessed, and in the case of a firm the ordinary place of residence of the head acting partner, shall be held to be the principal place of business of such person or firm. Residence in the suburbs or neighbourhood of Calcutta shall, when the business is carried on in Calcutta, be taken to be residence in Calcutta.

Profits how to be estimated.

5. In estimating the amount of profits derived from any trade, dealing, or industry, the expenses incurred in carrying on such trade, dealing, or industry must be excluded; but the amount expended on things not directly connected with it, such as the maintenance of the licensee or his family, must not be excluded, as such amounts form part of the taxable profits of the licensee.

Occupations exempt from assessment.

6. Under section 5 of the Act the following occupations are exempted from assessment :—

(1) agriculture;

(2) the performance by a cultivator or receiver of rent in kind of any process ordinarily employed by a cultivator or receiver of rent in kind to render the produce raised or received by him fit to be taken to market;

(3) the sale by a cultivator or receiver of rent in kind of the produce raised or received by him, when he does not keep a shop or stall for the sale of such produce.

All servants receiving fixed wages or paid by commission, or partly by wages and partly by commission, whether their duties are such as would ordinarily make them liable under the Act or not, including all mechanics and artisans paid by wages, are exempted from the operation of the Act.

General instructions as to classes liable under the Act.

7. Any agriculturist who (besides cultivating land) carries on any trade, dealing, or industry which would, if it formed his sole occupation, subject him to tax, must take out a license with reference to the amount of his earnings from such separate trade, dealing, or industry. Care must be taken in assessing such a person to discriminate between his earnings from his trade or industry and his earnings from his agriculture. Agricultural profits must not on any account be taxed. So, again, no zemindar or rent receiver is liable to tax in respect of his rents. But if he carry on the business of a mahajun or money-lender he should be required to take out a license in respect of his business profits. There will ordinarily be little difficulty in distinguishing between the case of a zemindar who occasionally makes advances to his tenants with the object of assisting them, and the case of a zemindar who regularly carries on 'mahajuni' for his own profit. The former should on no account be taxed under this Act. The latter must take out a license.

Collectors should have little difficulty in deciding generally whether a man's occupation can be described as a 'trade, dealing or industry.' These words are intended only to cover all the operations of commerce, large or small.

Incidence of taxation.

8. In determining under which class of the schedule annexed to the Act a person is liable to be assessed, the Collector must endeavour so to regulate the incidence of the tax that the fee payable by any person shall not exceed 2 per cent. upon his annual earnings. In the inquiry which is to be made into the amount of each licensee's income the Collector should base his estimate on any information voluntarily given to him by the licensee, or on any other indirect evidence which may be available to him. It will be for the licensee to show that the rate of tax proposed is beyond the maximum to which he is liable under the Act.

Table of fees.

9. The following table shows the minimum taxable income under each class:—

CLASS.	Minimum taxable income.	Rate of tax.
	Rs.	Rs.
I	25,000	500
II	10,000	200
III	5,000	100
IV	2,500	50
V	1,000	20
VI	500	10

Duties of Collectors.

10. In the assessment and collection of the tax the Collector of the district is subject to the control of the Commissioner and the Board of Revenue.

By whom operations under the Act to be conducted.

11. The Collector must retain in his own hands the general supervision of the operations under the Act; but he may, with the sanction of the Commissioner, entrust the immediate control and direction of the work to any qualified Assistant or Deputy Collector at head-quarters.

The sanction of Government is not necessary for the exercise and performance (subject to the Collector's orders) by an Assistant or Deputy Collector of any or all of the duties and powers conferred on a Collector under the Act. It is only necessary in the case when any other officer than those above named has been appointed for the purpose. Powers to hear appeals are given below.

Establishment to be employed.

12. One or more assessors will be appointed by Government in each district, if necessary, to conduct operations under the Act. No officer, while continuing to hold and to perform the duties of an appointment in the regular establishment of a Collector's office, should be employed to make or revise assessments under the Act save with the previous sanction of Government, which should be obtained through the Commissioner and the Board.

13. No time should be lost in the publication of the notification under section 16 (form B).

Preparation of lists and register.

14. It will be necessary to examine the old assessments very carefully before entries are made in the first list framed under section 11, and notices served under section 17. As soon as the list has been prepared each Collector will open a register in the English character in the form below, to be called "Register of Assessees under the License Tax." The register will be divided into separate parts, one for each sub-division, and will contain an index. A copy of the part referring to each sub-division will be supplied to the sub-divisional officer. Collectors and sub-divisional officers should take every opportunity of checking their registers by personal enquiry. Errors of assessment should be at once rectified, if possible, and the district and sub-divisional registers corrected accordingly.

By whom production of licenses may be required.

16. Officers of police of or above the rank of Sub-Inspector shall be deemed to be generally empowered to require any person holding a license to produce and show his license. But the Collector may, by an order in writing, generally or specially, empower any other persons to act in this behalf as he may think fit

Fees to be paid in one sum.

17. All fees under the Act must be paid in one sum, and not by instalments.

Place where payment may be tendered.

18. Payment of fees and other demands under the Act must be made at the district or sub-divisional treasury.

Granting of license.

19. On payment of the fee specified, the licensee will be entitled to receive a license under the Act, and this license shall be deemed to be a receipt for the fee so paid.

Form of license.

20. The license will be in the form C, and will be printed on such paper, and bear such serial numbers as the Board may prescribe for each district. The forms of licenses for any particular year must be kept separate from the forms of licenses for a preceding year, and on no account should a license intended for one year be granted in a form intended for another year.

Remission or reduction of tax and cancelment of license.

21. Whenever the amount of the tax, after being realized, is remitted or reduced on appeal, the license originally issued shall be returned to the Collector at the time the amount refunded is paid. The license should be cancelled, and the fact of cancelment should be noted on the counterfoil. In the case of reduction of the tax, a fresh license will be granted for the reduced sum, the balance due to the assessee being refunded to him; but in the accounts the full amount paid for the cancelled license will be treated as a refund, and the amount of the fresh license as a collection.

Petitions of objection.

22. A petition of objection under section 18 of the Act may be filed within 30 days of the date of the service of the notice under section 17. The Collector may extend this period beyond 30 days, but such period should in no case, unless under very exceptional circumstances, be extended beyond 60 days.

Petitions of objection after time.

23. No petition of objection should be received when more than 30 days have passed from the date of the service of the notice, unless the license fee charged in the Collector's list is previously paid.

Refund when to be made.

24. As soon as an order for refund has been passed on a petition of objection, payment of the amount should be made.

Power of assessors to decide objections.

25. Assessors are not to be allowed any power of deciding objections against their own assessments, except under classes V and VI, in which cases an appeal will lie to the Sub-divisional Officer. In districts where there are no sub-divisions or where the objector is assessed within the Sudder Sub-division of the district this appeal will lie to the Assistant or Deputy Collector in charge of License Tax duties at head-quarters.

Objection in first four classes to be heard by Assistant or Deputy Collector.

26. Petitions of objection against assessments in the first four classes must be made to the Assistant or Deputy Collector in charge of the License Tax duties at head-quarters. The appeal from his decision will lie to the Collector of the district.

List of defaulters.

27. The Sub-divisional Officer or the Deputy Collector in charge at head-quarters shall forward to the Collector a list of those persons who have failed to make payment within 60 days from and after the service of notices under section 17. The Collector shall thereupon issue orders for the recovery of the license fees and full penalty, unless for good and sufficient reasons the Collector sees fit to postpone the issue of orders in the case of any particular defaulter.

Application for license by person not included in the list.

28. Whenever any person whose name is not mentioned in the list framed under section 11 of the Act applies to take out a license he must be required to state, in writing or in reply to formally recorded interrogations (form E.), his name, and the trade, dealing, or industry, under which he is chargeable, and the maximum amount of fee which he considers himself liable to pay under the Act. Any person giving false information on these points is liable to the penalties prescribed by the Penal Code for such offence.

H. J. REYNOLDS,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August 1879.

PRESENT:

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it was enacted that on and after the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, or such later day as might be fixed for the purpose by Order in Council, the Regulations contained in the table marked C in the schedule to the said Act should come into operation and be of the same force as if they were enacted in the body of the said Act; but that Her Majesty might from time to time, on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, by Order in Council, annul or modify any of the said Regulations, or make new Regulations in addition thereto or in substitution therefor; and that any alterations in, or additions to, such Regulations made in manner aforesaid should be of the same force as the Regulations in the said schedule:

And whereas by the same Act it was further provided that whenever it should be made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of any foreign country was willing that the Regulations for preventing collisions contained in Table C in the schedule to the said Act, or such other Regulations for preventing collisions as are for the time being in force under the said Act, should apply to the ships of such country when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction, Her Majesty might, by Order in Council, direct that such Regulations should apply to the ships of the said foreign country, whether within British jurisdiction or not; and it was further provided by the said Act that whenever an Order in Council had been issued applying any Regulation made by, or in pursuance of, the said Act to the ships of any foreign country, such ships should in all cases arising in any British court, be deemed to be subject to such Regulation, and should, for the purpose of such Regulation, be treated as if they were British ships:

And whereas by an Order in Council made in pursuance of the said recited Act, and dated the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, Her Majesty was pleased to direct:—First, that the Regulations contained in the schedule to the said Act should be modified by the substitution for such Regulations of certain Regulations appended to the said Order;

Secondly, that the said Regulations appended to the said Order should, on and after the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, apply to French ships, whether within British jurisdiction or not:

And whereas by several Orders in Council subsequently made, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that the Regulations appended to the said Order of the ninth of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, should apply to ships of the countries specified in the said Orders, whether within British jurisdiction or not:

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, Her Majesty, on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, was pleased to make certain additions to the Regulations appended to the said first-recited Order in Council, for the purpose of explaining Articles 11 and 13 of the said Regulations, and of removing doubt and misapprehension concerning the effect of the said two Articles:

And whereas the Admiralty and the Board of Trade have jointly recommended to Her Majesty that the Regulations contained in the Order in Council dated the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the additions to the said Regulations contained in the said Order in Council of the thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, shall be annulled from the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and that there shall be substituted for the said Regulations and additions respectively the new Regulations hereinafter set forth:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the governments of the several foreign countries mentioned in the second schedule hereto are respectively willing that the Regulations contained in the first schedule hereto shall apply to ships of the said countries respectively, whether within British jurisdiction or not:

Now therefore Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct:—

First, that on and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, the Regulations appended to the said order in Council of the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the additions to the said Regulations contained in the said Order in Council of the thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, shall be annulled, and that there shall be substituted for the said Regulations and additions respectively the new Regulations contained in the first schedule hereto.

Second, that the said Regulations contained in the said first schedule hereto shall, from and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, apply to ships of the countries mentioned in the said second schedule hereto, whether within British jurisdiction or not.

C. L. PEEL.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS FOR PREVENTING COLLISIONS AT SEA.

Preliminary.

ART. 1. In the following rules every steam-ship which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing ship; and every steam-ship which is under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a ship under steam.

Rules Concerning Lights.

ART. 2. The lights mentioned in the following Articles, numbered 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11, and no others, shall be carried in all weathers, from sunset to sunrise.

ART. 3. A seagoing steam-ship when under way shall carry—

(a.) On or in front of the foremast, at a height above the hull of not less than 20 feet, and if the breadth of the ship exceeds 20 feet then at a height above the hull not less than such breadth, a bright white light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 20 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light 10 points on each side of the ship, viz. from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on either side; and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least five miles.

(b.) On the starboard side, a green light so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the starboard side; and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles.

(c.) On the port side, a red light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles.

(d.) The said green and red side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

ART. 4. A steam ship, when towing another ship shall, in addition to her side lights, carry two bright white lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, so as to distinguish her from other steam-ships. Each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position, as the white light which other steam-ships are required to carry.

ART. 5. A ship, whether a steam-ship or a sailing ship, when employed either in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable, or which from any accident is not under command, shall at night carry in the same position as the white light which steam-ships are required to carry, and, if a steam-ship, in place of that light, three red lights in globular lanterns, each not less than 10 inches in diameter, in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart: and shall by day carry in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, in front of but not lower than her foremast head, three black balls or shapes, each two feet in diameter.

These shapes and lights are to be taken by approaching ships as signals that the ship using them is not under command, and cannot therefore get out of the way.

The above ships when not making any way through the water, shall not carry the side lights, but when making way shall carry them.

ART. 6. A sailing ship under way, or being towed, shall carry the same lights as are provided by Article 3 for a steam-ship under way, with the exception of the white light, which she shall never carry.

ART. 7. Whenever, as in the case of small vessels during bad weather, the green and red side lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept on deck, on their respective sides of the vessel, ready for use: and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the colour of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with proper screens.

ART. 8. A ship, whether a steam-ship or a sailing ship, when at anchor, shall carry where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding 20 feet above the hull, a white light, in a globular lantern of not less than eight inches in diameter, and so constructed as to show a clear uniform and unbroken light visible all round the horizon, at a distance of at least one mile.

ART. 9. A pilot vessel, when engaged on her station on pilotage duty, shall not carry the lights required for other vessels, but shall carry a white light at the mast head visible all round the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals which shall never exceed fifteen minutes.

A pilot vessel, when not engaged on her station on pilotage duty, shall carry lights similar to those of other ships.

ART 10. (a)—Open fishing boats and other open boats when under way shall not be obliged to carry the side lights required for other vessels; but every such boat shall in lieu thereof have ready at hand a lantern with a green glass on the one side and a red glass on the other side; and on the approach of or to other vessels such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

(b)—A fishing vessel and an open boat when at anchor shall exhibit a bright white light.

(c)—A fishing vessel when employed in drift net fishing, shall carry on one of her masts two red lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart.

(d)—A trawler at work shall carry on one of her masts two lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, the upper light red and the lower green, and shall also either carry the side lights required for other vessels, or if the side lights cannot be carried, have ready at hand the coloured lights as provided in Article 7, or a lantern with a red and a green glass as described in paragraph (a) of this Article.

(e)—Fishing vessels and open boats shall not be prevented from using a flare-up in addition if they desire to do so.

(f)—The lights mentioned in this Article are substituted for those mentioned in the 12th, 13th, and 14th Articles of the Convention between France and England scheduled to the British Sea Fisheries Act, 1868.

(g)—All lights required by this Article, except side lights, shall be in globular lanterns so constructed as to show all round the horizon.

ART. 11. A ship which is being overtaken by another shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned ship a white light or a flare-up light.

Sound Signals for Fog, &c.

ART. 12. A steam-ship shall be provided with a steam whistle, or other efficient steam sound signal, so placed that the sound may not be intercepted by any obstructions, and with an efficient fog horn to be sounded by bellows or other mechanical means, and also with an efficient bell. A sailing ship shall be provided with a similar fog horn and bell.

In fog, mist, or falling snow, whether by day or night, the signals described in this Article shall be used as follows, that is to say—

(a)—A steam-ship under way shall make with her steam whistle, or other steam sound signal, at intervals of not more than two minutes, a prolonged blast.

(b)—A sailing ship under way shall make with her fog horn, at intervals of not more than two minutes, when on the starboard tack one blast, when on the port tack two blasts in succession, and when with the wind abaft the beam three blasts in succession.

(c)—A steam ship and a sailing ship when not under way shall, at intervals of not more than two minutes, ring the bell.

Speed of Ships to be moderate in Fog, &c.

ART. 13. Every ship, whether a sailing ship or steam-ship, shall in a fog, mist, or falling snow go at a moderate speed.

Steering and Sailing Rules.

ART. 14. When two sailing ships are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other as follows, viz.—

(a)—A ship which is running free shall keep out of the way of a ship which is close-hauled.

(b)—A ship which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a ship which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.

(d)—When both are running free with the wind on the same side, the ship which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the ship which is to leeward.

(e)—A ship which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other ship.

ART. 15. If two ships under steam are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

This Article only applies to cases where ships are meeting end on, or nearly end on, in such a manner as to involve risk of collision, and does not apply to two ships which must, if both keep on their respective courses, pass clear of each other.

The only cases to which it does apply are, when each of the two ships is end on, or nearly end on to the other, in other words, to cases in which by day each ship sees the mast of the other in a line, or nearly in a line, with her own; and by night, to cases in which each ship is in such a position as to see both the side lights of the other.

It does not apply by day to cases in which a ship sees another ahead crossing her own course; or by night, to cases where the red light of one ship is opposed to the red light of the other, or where the green light of one ship is opposed to the green light of the other, or where a red light without a green light, or a green light without a red light is seen ahead, or where both green and red lights are seen anywhere but ahead.

ART. 16. If two ships under steam are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, the ship which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other.

After five years holder of estate or tenure may apply to Collector for revaluation.

13. Whenever the term of five years shall have expired from the beginning of the cess year in which the levy of the cesses took effect in any estate or tenure in accordance with any valuation under this Act, or Bengal Act X of 1871, the holder of any such estate or tenure may apply to the Collector to revalue his estate or tenure, and for such purpose shall lodge in the office of the Collector returns in the form in Schedule (A) contained; and thereupon the Collector shall proceed to revalue such estate or tenure, and if he make any alteration in the valuation of any such tenure shall give notice of such alteration to the holder of the estate or superior tenure in which such tenure is included, and shall alter the valuation of such estate accordingly;

Provided that no revaluation or reduction of the amount of cesses previously payable by any estate or tenure, in consequence of a revaluation under this section, shall take effect until the beginning of the cess year commencing next after such revaluation, unless the application for revaluation shall have been made, and the returns necessary lodged in the Collector's office within three months of the beginning of a cess year, in which case such revaluation and reduction, if any, shall take effect from the commencement of such year.

Proclamation to make return of lands to be issued.

14. Whenever the Lieutenant-Governor has ordered that a valuation or a revaluation of any district or part of a district shall be made for the purposes of this Act, the Collector shall cause a proclamation to be issued requiring every holder of any estate or tenure which is liable to pay an annual amount of revenue or an annual amount of rent exceeding one hundred rupees, and every holder of any revenue-free estate or rent-free tenure the gross rental of which exceeds one hundred rupees, severally to lodge at the Collector's office within one month a return of all lands comprised in his estate or tenure in the form in Schedule (A) contained giving the particulars in such form set forth.

Publication of proclamation.

The Collector shall cause such proclamation to be published by affixing a copy thereof in some conspicuous place in the office of such Collector, in every civil court, in every police station, and in the office of every sub-divisional officer within the district, and in any other manner which the Lieutenant-Governor may from time to time direct.

Revaluation may be of particular estates or tenures only.

15. At any time at which the Lieutenant-Governor might order a revaluation of a district or part of a district to be made as provided by section 12, he may, if he think fit, instead of so ordering, make an order that particular estates or tenures only in such district or part of a district shall be revalued.

Notice to return lands.

Proclamation of such revaluation.

16. Whenever any proclamation has been published, as mentioned in section 14, in any district and whenever the Lieutenant-Governor has made an order, under the last preceding section, that a revaluation of particular estates and tenures only shall be made, the Collector shall cause a notice to be served in respect of every estate and tenure which is to be valued or revalued, and in respect of which no return shall have been lodged in accordance with the requirement of such proclamation, requiring every holder of such estate or tenure severally to lodge at the Collector's office the return mentioned in section 14; and shall also cause a similar notice to be served in respect of every tenure included in any such estate or tenure which may have been named in any return lodged in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, or of Bengal Act X of 1871, either for the purposes of the valuation or revaluation then contemplated, or for the purposes of any previous valuation or revaluation, or of which the existence may in any other way have come to his knowledge.

Form of notice and time for lodging returns.

17. The notice mentioned in the last preceding section shall be in the form in Schedule (BI) or in Schedule (BII) contained as the case may be, and shall require every holder of the estate or tenure severally to lodge the return within the time specified below, viz.—

In the case of revenue-paying estates and rent-paying tenures.

If the return relate to an estate or tenure which is liable to the payment of annual revenue or of rent not exceeding Rs. 500, or to any share or interest in such estate or tenure;	Within six weeks of the service of the notice.
If the return relate to any other estate or tenure, or to any share or interest therein;	Within three months of the service of the notice.

In the case of revenue-free estates and rent-free tenures.

If the return relate to any estate or tenure of which the gross annual rental does not exceed Rs. 500, or to any share or interest in such estate or tenure;	Within six weeks of the service of the notice.
If the return relate to any other estate or tenure, or to any share or interest therein;	Within three months of the service of the notice.

The Collector may in his discretion extend the time allowed for lodging any such return.

Penalty for omitting to make return.

18. All holders of estates or tenures in respect of which such notice has been served who shall, without sufficient cause being shown to the satisfaction of the Collector, refuse or omit to lodge the required return in the office of such Collector within the time allowed by such notice in respect of the estate or tenure which they hold, or within any extended time which may have been allowed by the Collector for lodging such return, shall be severally liable to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees for every day after the expiration of such time or extended time until such return is furnished, or until the value of the lands comprised in their respective estates and tenures shall have been otherwise ascertained and determined by the Collector as hereinafter provided.

The amount of such fine accruing due from time to time may be levied by the Collector as provided in section 100 or 101, and the fact of an appeal against such fine being pending shall not avail to prevent the levy of any such fine pending the disposal of the appeal, unless the Commissioner shall otherwise direct.

Whenever the amount levied in respect of any such fine exceeds five hundred rupees, the Collector shall report the case specially to the Commissioner; and no further levy for such default shall be made otherwise than by authority of the Commissioner.

No rent to be recovered till return is made.

19. From and after the expiry of the time allowed by the notice, or of any extended time under the provisions of section 17, every holder of an estate or tenure in respect of which such notice has been served shall be precluded from suing for or recovering rent for any land or tenure situate in any estate or tenure in respect of which no return has been lodged as aforesaid.

The Collector may send a list to the Civil Court of all such holders so making default in lodging returns as aforesaid, and such Court shall take judicial notice of the same.

Whenever the required return is lodged in respect of any estate or tenure, or whenever the valuation of any such estate or tenure has been otherwise completed, the disability imposed on the holder thereof by this section shall cease; and if such estate or tenure shall have been included in any list as aforesaid, the Collector shall forthwith give notice to the Civil Court of the cessation of such disability.

No rent to be recovered for land, &c., not mentioned in return.

20. Every holder of an estate or tenure in respect of which a return has been made as required by this chapter shall be precluded from suing for or recovering—

(a) any rent whatsoever for any land, holding, or tenure forming part of the estate or tenure to which such return relates, but which has not been mentioned in such return, unless it be proved that the holding or tenure for the rent of which the rent is claimed was created subsequently to the lodging of such return;

(b) rent at any higher rate than is mentioned in such return for any land, holding, or tenure included in such return, unless it be proved that the rent of such land or tenure has been lawfully enhanced subsequently to the lodging of such return;

Provided that the Collector may at his discretion, at any time within six months from the presentation of any return made under this Part, receive a petition correcting any such return; and on the acceptance of such petition, and on payment of the amount of cess due from the date when the corrected valuation came into force, rent at the rate shown in the corrected return may be recovered. Such notices as the Collector may direct shall be served upon the parties affected by such petition at the expense of the person lodging the return as aforesaid.

If returns not furnished, Collector to make valuation.

21. If no return shall have been lodged in respect of any lands for which notice under section 16 has been issued, the Collector may, after the expiration of the time allowed by the notice or of such extended time as is mentioned in section 17, ascertain and fix by such ways and means as to him shall seem expedient the annual value of any estate, tenure, or lands mentioned in such notice; and all expenses incurred in making such valuation may be recovered with all costs of recovery thereof as provided in sections 100 and 101.

22. Whenever the maker of any return under this Act has been convicted on a prosecution under section 96 of making a false return relating to any lands, the Collector may by such ways and means as to him shall seem expedient ascertain and fix the annual value of such lands; and the expense of such valuation may be recovered from the maker of such return as provided in sections 100 and 101.

After conviction of making false returns, Collector may make valuation.

23. Whenever the Collector may deem that any return lodged relating to lands for which no rent is payable by cultivating ryots to the person making such return is untrue or incorrect, he may, whether any prosecution as mentioned in section 96 shall have been instituted or not, by such ways and means as to him shall seem expedient ascertain and fix the annual value of such lands; and in case the annual value of such lands so determined by him shall exceed by one-fifth the value stated in such return, the expense of such valuation may be recovered from the person by whom such return was lodged, as provided in sections 100 and 101, and in all other cases the said expense shall be borne by the District Road Fund established under this Act as hereinafter provided.

In certain cases of incorrect returns, Collector to make valuation without previous conviction.

24. The Collector may, whenever he may think fit, cause a notice in the form in Schedule (BI) contained to be served on any person holding any lands or possessing any interest therein, although such person may have been mentioned in any return as a cultivating ryot; and thereupon such person shall be bound to make a return of the annual value of such lands within one month from the service of such notice in the form in Schedule (A) contained, and the provisions in sections 17 and 18 regarding extension of time for lodging a return and regarding fines shall be applicable to such person.

Person returned as cultivating ryot may be served with notice.

25. If no return is made by any person on whom a notice has been served as provided in the last preceding section, the Collector may proceed by such ways and means as to him shall seem expedient to ascertain the annual value of the lands held by such person; and in case it appears that such annual value is greater than the rent paid by such person, the expense of such valuation shall be borne by such person, and may be recovered with all costs of recovery thereof as provided in sections 100 and 101, but in all other cases shall be defrayed from the said District Road Fund.

If no return made, Collector may ascertain annual value of lands.

26. If it shall appear to the Collector that any person on whom a notice has been served under section 24 has been wrongly classed in the return as a cultivating ryot, the Collector may direct that the entry be corrected and that such person be classed as a tenure-holder;

Collector may correct classification in returns.

and thereupon such person shall be deemed to be a tenure-holder for the purposes of the assessment and levy of the cesses in respect of the lands held by him.

27. Whenever the revenue annually payable in respect of any estate, or the rent annually payable in respect of any tenure, does not exceed the sum of one hundred rupees, the Collector may, without issuing any notice for such estate or tenure—

Summary valuation of small revenue-paying estates and tenures.

(a) in any case, determine the annual value of the land comprised therein to be, in a permanently-settled estate or tenure, a sum not exceeding three times, and in a temporarily-settled estate or tenure, a sum not exceeding twice, the amount of the annual revenue or rent payable therefor; or

(b) when the area of the said estate or tenure has been ascertained, determine the annual value of such estate or tenure to be at such rate per acre as to him shall seem fit.

28. When the area of any revenue-free estate or rent-free tenure, the gross rental of which does not exceed, or is not estimated by the Collector to exceed, the sum of one hundred rupees has been ascertained, the Collector may, without issuing any notice for such estate or tenure, determine the annual value of such estate or tenure to be at such rate per acre as to him may seem fit.

Summary valuation of small revenue-free estates and rent-free tenures of which the area has been ascertained

29. When the land contained in any estate or tenure has been summarily valued by the Collector in the manner provided by clause (a) of section 27, the annual value of any portion of such land which is comprised within a tenure subordinate to such estate or tenure shall be determined according to the following rules:—

Computation of annual value of land comprised in a subordinate tenure in a summarily valued estate or tenure.

(1).—When the subordinate tenure comprises the whole of the estate or superior tenure, the annual value of the subordinate tenure shall be taken to be the same as that of the estate or superior tenure.

(2).—When the subordinate tenure comprises a part only of the land constituting the estate or superior tenure—

(a) The difference between the annual value of the estate or superior tenure, and the revenue or rent payable in respect of such estate or superior tenure shall first be ascertained;

(b) Next, the ratio which such difference bears to such revenue or rent shall be ascertained;

(c) Then the amount which bears the same ratio to the rent payable in respect of the subordinate tenure shall be ascertained;

(d) Half of the amount so ascertained shall be added to the rent payable in respect of the subordinate tenure, and the result shall be taken to be the annual value of the subordinate tenure.

Examples—

A.—An estate paying a revenue of Rs. 80 is summarily valued by the Collector, under clause (a) of section 27, at Rs. 200. The whole estate is let in patni for a rent of Rs. 120. The annual value of the patni tenure will be Rs. 200.

B.—An estate paying a revenue of Rs. 120 is summarily valued by the Collector, under clause (a) of section 27, at Rs. 200. A part only of the estate is let in patni for a rent of Rs. 75.

The difference between the annual value of the estate (Rs. 200) and the revenue paid in respect of it (Rs. 120) is Rs. 80. This difference bears a ratio of two-thirds to the revenue (Rs. 120).

The amount which bears the same ratio (two-thirds) to the rent payable in respect of the patni (Rs. 75) is Rs. 50; add half of Rs. 50 to the rent payable in respect of the patni tenure, and the result (Rs. 75 +25=) Rs. 100 will be the annual value of the patni tenure.

C.—Within the patni tenure paying a rent of Rs. 75, as in example B, is a darpatni tenure paying a rent of Rs. 54.

The difference between the annual value of the patni ascertained as above (Rs. 100) and the rent payable in respect of the patni (Rs. 75) is Rs. 25, which bears a ratio of one-third to the said rent.

The amount which bears the same ratio (one-third) to the rent payable in respect of the darpatni (Rs. 54) is Rs. 18;

add half of Rs. 18 to the rent payable in respect of the darpatni, and the result (Rs. 54 +9=) Rs. 63 will be the annual value of the darpatni tenure.

When such land may be valued according to rate per acre.

30. When the land contained in any estate or tenure has been summarily valued according to a rate per acre, under clause (b) of section 27, or under section 28, the annual value of the land comprised in any subordinate tenure shall be taken at the same rate per acre as that of the estate or superior tenure.

Holder of summarily valued estate or tenure may lodge return

31. The holder of any estate, tenure, or subordinate tenure which has been summarily valued under section 27 or 28 may within one month from the posting of the valuation roll in respect thereof under section 32, lodge a return in the form in Schedule (A) contained in regard to such estate, tenure, or subordinate tenure, and thereupon such return shall be deemed to be a return made as required by section 16 and shall be dealt with accordingly.

Collector may value small estate or tenure by regular process.

32. Instead of proceeding to value any estate or tenure summarily under the provisions of section 27 or 28, the Collector may, if he think fit, cause a notice to be served in respect of any such estate or tenure in the form in Schedule (BI) or Schedule (BII) contained, as the case may be, and thereupon all the provisions of this Part shall apply in the same way as they would have applied if the annual Government revenue or rent payable in respect of such estate or tenure had exceeded one hundred rupees.

Lands used for Tea, Coffee, or Cinchona.

Return of plantations, &c.

33. In the case of lands acquired under any rules issued by, or under the authority of, the Government for the sale, lease grant, or clearance of waste lands, or held directly from Government, and used for the cultivation of tea, coffee, or cinchona, the Collector shall, in lieu of the notice prescribed by section 16, cause a notice to be served calling on the holder of such lands to lodge within two months of the service of such notice, a return in the form in Schedule (C) contained giving the particulars in such form set forth; and the annual value of such lands shall be fixed at ten rupees in respect of every acre therein entered as cultivated, unless the Board of Revenue shall in any particular case prescribe a lower rate. The provisions of sections 18 and 21 shall apply to all lands in respect of which a notice has been issued under this section.

Publication of Valuation Rolls and Duration of Valuations.

Valuation rolls to be prepared.

34. Whenever any valuation or revaluation is made under this Part, the Collector shall cause to be prepared from the returns furnished to him and from the valuations made by him in accordance with this Act a valuation roll of each estate within his district and of the tenures therein comprised, noting thereon for each estate the amount of revenue annually payable to Government on which the deduction specified in section 41 is to be calculated.

On the application of any holder of an estate or tenure or holding within his district, and on payment of such copying fee as the Board of Revenue shall from time to time determine, the Collector shall cause to be furnished to such holder a copy or corrected copy of so much of any such returns, and of any such roll as relates to the lands included within his estate, tenure, or holding.

Publication of rolls.

35. On the completion of every roll prescribed under this Part the Collector shall cause a copy thereof to be posted up at the mâl cutcherry of the estate to which such roll refers, and shall cause extracts of such portions of any such roll as refer to any tenure to be posted up at the mâl cutcherry of such tenure; provided that, if no such mâl cutcherry be found, such roll and such extracts shall be posted up at some conspicuous places on the estate and tenures respectively to which they refer.

To be attested by two persons.

The person who is entrusted with the publication of any such return shall obtain an acknowledgment in writing signed by two persons who may be either respectable residents of the neighbourhood, or chowkidars, or other officers of Government, to the effect that such return was duly published on the spot, and shall give in such acknowledgment to the Collector.

Valuation to be in force for five years.

36. Except as otherwise in this Part expressly provided, every valuation and every revaluation made under this Chapter shall remain in force for the term of five years from the date fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor under section 11 as the date from which the cess leviable in pursuance thereof shall take effect, and thereafter, until another revaluation and assessment in substitution therefor shall have been ordered and completed.

Collector may reduce valuation,

37. Nothing in section 36 contained shall be held to debar the Collector, with the sanction of the Board of Revenue, from making at any time any reduction which he may think fit in the valuation of any estate or tenure; and may value and assess omitted and newly-found estates and tenures.

or from making a valuation of and assessing and levying cess under the rules laid down in this Part upon any estate or tenure which for any reason whatever has been omitted from the valuations and assessments for the time being in force, or which was not in existence when such valuation or assessment was made.

CHAPTER III.—Rating and Levy of the Cesses.

Rate at which road cess shall be levied, how to be fixed.

38. The road cess for each year shall be assessed and levied in each district as provided in section 6, and, subject to the maximum rate in that section mentioned, at such rate as may be determined for such year by the Committee of such district with the approval of the Commissioner under section 152 or 153, or with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor under section 155, as the case may be, or at such rate as the Lieutenant-Governor may order under section 155.

Rate at which public works cess shall be levied, how to be fixed.

40. When the rate of road cess and public works cess to be levied in any district shall have been determined for any year and published in the Calcutta Gazette as provided in section 157, the Collector shall cause the rate so determined to be published by affixing a notification in some conspicuous place in the office of the said Collector, in every civil court, in every police station, and in the office of every sub-divisional officer within the district, and shall cause such rate to be proclaimed by beat of drum throughout the district, and shall cause to be served on the holder of every estate and of every tenure within the district paying rent directly to the Collector a notice showing the amount of road cess and public works cess payable in respect of his estate or tenure, and specifying the date from which such road cess and public works cess will take effect;

Provided that it shall not be necessary to serve such notice when no change has been made in the valuation of the estate or tenure or in the rate of road cess or public works cess since the issue of the last notice under this section.

Mode of payment of road cess and public works cess by holder of estate.

41. (1)—Except as otherwise in this Act provided every holder of an estate shall yearly pay to the Collector the entire amount of the road cess and public works cess calculated on the annual value of the lands comprised in such estate, at the rate or rates which may have been determined for such cesses respectively for the year as in this Act provided, less a deduction to be calculated at one-half of the said rates for every rupee of the revenue entered in the valuation roll of such estate as payable in respect thereof.

By holder of tenure.

(2)—Every holder of a tenure shall yearly pay to the holder of the estate or tenure within which the land held by him is included, the entire amount of the road cess and public works cess calculated on the annual value of the land comprised in his tenure at the rate or rates which may have been determined for such cesses respectively for the year as in this Act provided, less a deduction to be calculated at one-half of the said rates for every rupee of the rent payable by him for such tenure.

By cultivating ryot.

(3)—Every cultivating ryot shall pay to the person to whom his rent is payable one-half of the said road cess and public works cess calculated at the said rate or rates respectively upon the rent payable by him, or upon the annual value ascertained under the provisions of section 24 or 25 of the land held by him.

Time of payment by holder of an estate;

42. (1)—Every holder of a revenue-paying estate shall pay the amount of road cess and public works cess due by him in equal instalments on the several days fixed for the payment of the instalments of the Government revenue due in respect of his estate, or if such revenue be payable in one annual sum then on the day fixed for the payment of such sum;

(2) Every holder of a revenue-free estate shall pay the amount of road cess and public works cess due by him in two equal instalments or in one annual payment upon such days or day as shall be for that purpose appointed by any order of the Lieutenant-Governor;

By tenure-holder and ryot.

(3)—Every holder of a rent-paying tenure and every cultivating ryot shall pay the amount of road cess and public works cess due by him in instalments in the proportion of the instalments of rent payable in respect of the tenure or holding of such tenure-holder or ryot;

Provided that, in cases in which, according to local usage or to the terms of any agreement, no part of such rent falls due before the end of the year on account of which it is payable, the tenure-holder or ryot shall pay the amount of road cess and public works cess due by him in two equal instalments upon such days as shall be for that purpose appointed by any order of the Lieutenant-Governor.

Distribution of valuation in case of partition.

43. In case of partition of an estate being effected under Regulation XIX of 1814, or Bengal Act VIII of 1876, or any similar Act, after valuation of such estate and while such valuation remains in force, the total valuation of the original estate shall be distributed proportionately under the order of the Collector over the newly-formed estates, whereupon the newly-formed estates shall, for the purposes of this Act, take the place of the original estate, the liability to pay cess in respect of each newly-formed estate being separate and distinct from the liability to pay cess in respect of any other of such newly-formed estates.

Such separate liability shall take effect from the same date as the separate liability of the newly-formed estates respectively in respect of land revenue.

Procedure to be followed when there is a partition.

The procedure prescribed by sections 34 and 35 shall be followed whenever a redistribution of the valuation is made in consequence of a partition as mentioned in the last preceding section.

Effect of opening separate account under Act XI of 1859, or Act VII of 1876.

44. When a recorded sharer of a joint revenue-paying estate has opened a separate account under Act XI of 1859, or under section 70 of Bengal Act

VII of 1876, or any similar law for the time being in force for the regulation of the opening and maintaining of such separate accounts, he shall be entitled, in regard to the payment and realization of road cess and public works cess under this Act, to all the advantages of separate liability enjoyed by him under the said Act XI of 1859, and Bengal Act VII of 1876 in regard to the payment and realization of revenue, and shall be entitled to separate assessment and to the issue of separate notices under this Act from the date on which such advantages shall take effect in respect of the demand of Government revenue.

Penalty for default of payment of instalments.

45. If any instalment of road cess or public works cess or part thereof payable to the Collector shall not be paid within fifteen days from the date on which the same becomes due, the amount of such instalment or part thereof may be recovered at any time within three years after it became due, with interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum calculated from the date on which such instalment became due, and with all costs of recovering the same.

With permission of the Lieutenant-Governor Collector may keep separate account of cesses payable by registered holders of revenue free estates.

46. (1)—In any district to which the Lieutenant-Governor may specially order that the provisions of this section shall be extended, it shall be lawful for the Collector to keep a separate account in respect of the amount of cesses payable and paid by any holder of a revenue-free estate who is recorded in Part I of the Collector's general register of revenue-free lands as proprietor or manager of any specified share or interest in any revenue-free property.

(2)—Such separate account shall be opened and kept under such rules as to the levy of fees and other matters and subject to such conditions and in such manner as the Board of Revenue may from time to time prescribe, and the Board of Revenue may at any time order that any separate account which has been so opened shall be closed from such time as they may direct, and no longer kept as a separate account.

(3)—As long as any separate account shall remain open as provided in the preceding section, and no longer, the joint liability of the holders of such revenue-free estate for payment of the entire amount payable in respect of such estate shall cease; and the Collector shall recover the amount of cess or other demand due in respect of each share or interest for which an account has been so separately kept from the holder or holders of such share or interest only; and, if the Collector shall think fit to proceed under section 101, he shall take action under that section against the share or interest only in respect of which the sum demanded is due and the rents thereof.

Recovery by holders of estates or tenures.

47. Every holder of an estate or tenure to whom any sum may be payable under the provisions of this Act may recover the same with interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum in the same manner and under the same penalties as if the same were arrears of rent due to him.

Recovery from co-shareholders.

Recovery by recorded shareholders from their co-sharers by certificate process.

49. Whenever any shareholder in an estate who is recorded in the general register of revenue-paying and revenue-free lands maintained by the Collector, or whenever any shareholder in an estate the extent of whose share or interest in such estate is recorded in any other register of lands paying revenue or rent to the Collector direct, which is kept up by the Collector, shall have paid the road cess or public works cess payable in respect of such estate, or any part thereof in excess of the amount proportionate to his own interest in such estate, he may, within fifteen days of such payment being made, move the Collector to make a certificate as provided by any law for the time being in force for the recovery of Public Demands, specifying the amount which has been paid in by such shareholder as cess in respect of the recorded share or interest of any other shareholder in the estate; and thereupon such Collector may if he think fit shall make such certificate, and such certificate shall have the same effect as a certificate made for the recovery of a Public Demand; and the same notices shall be issued and the same proceedings may be taken thereon by the Collector as in case of such certificate;

Provided that the person in whose favour the certificate has been made shall be deemed to be the decree-holder for the sum mentioned in the certificate; and all proceedings taken by the Collector for the recovery of the sums mentioned in the certificate shall be taken at the instance of the person in whose favour the certificate has been made, and at his cost, and on his responsibility, and not otherwise;

Provided also that if any person against whom such certificate has been made shall object that the amount of the cesses for the recovery of which the certificate has been made is greater than the amount which the applicant for the certificate would recover from such person in a civil court, as being equitably payable in respect of such person's share or interest in the estate or tenure, and if in the opinion of the Collector there is probable ground for such objection, the Collector may, if he see fit, cancel such certificate, and leave the applicant to his remedy in the civil court.

CHAPTER IV.—Valuation and assessment of lands held rent-free and payment and recovery of Cess in respect thereof.

Rent-free lands in what estates or tenures to be included for the purposes of this Act.

50. All lands held without payment of rent other than lands mentioned in section 33, and other than estates entered on the General Register of Revenue-free lands of the district, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to form a part of the tenure within the local boundaries of which they are contained; and if they are not contained within the local boundaries of any tenure, then to form a part of the estate within the local boundaries of which they are contained; and if they are not contained within the local boundaries of any estate, then to form a part of the estate in which they were included at the original settlement of such estate; and if there be any doubt as to the estate in which they were so included, then to form a part of such conterminous estate as the Collector, in whose district such conterminous estate is situate, shall by an order under his seal appoint.

Holders of estates and tenures to pay cess at half rates for rent-free lands included therein.

51. Every holder of an estate or tenure who is required by this Act to submit a return in the form in Schedule (A) contained shall be bound to enter in such return all lands of the nature of those specified in section 50 according to the tenor thereof; and shall be bound to pay road cess and public works cess on the annual value of such lands, at one-half of the rates fixed under this Act for the levy of such cesses respectively in the district generally for the year.

Notice and extracts of valuation-roll to be published by Collector in respect of such rent-free lands.

52. Whenever any land held rent-free shall have been included in the return of any estate or tenure as provided in the last preceding section, the Collector shall, on publication of the valuation-roll of such estate or tenure as provided in section 35, cause to be published a notice in the form in Schedule (D) contained, to which notice shall be annexed such extracts from the valuation-roll of such estate or tenure as relate to such land.

Such publication may be lawfully made by affixing one copy of such notice and extracts at some conspicuous place in the village within which such land is situate, by depositing another copy of the same at any police-station, registration office, or other Government office in the neighbourhood for the inspection of all concerned, and by proclamation as herein next provided.

The proclamation shall be made by beat of drum throughout such village, and shall be to the effect that such extracts have been so affixed and deposited, and that the owner or holder of such land is required to inform himself, by inspection of such extracts, of the valuation put upon his land, and to pay yearly to the holder of the estate or tenure of which such land is, according to the provisions of section 50, to be deemed to form a part the cesses which shall be payable in respect of such land under the provisions of this Act.

Holder of rent-free land may object to valuation.

53. Within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days after the issue of any process for the recovery of any sum due from him as cess under this Chapter, the owner, holder, or occupier of any such land may make before the Collector an objection to the valuation of his land as entered in the valuation-roll so published, and on such objection being made, the Collector shall, by such ways and means as to him shall seem expedient, ascertain and fix the annual value of the land in the possession of such owner, holder, or occupier, and may alter such roll accordingly, and shall give notice of any such alteration to the holder of the estate or tenure to which such roll relates;

Provided that nothing in this section shall be taken to authorise the Collector to alter any return so as to show any area of land as held rent-free which the maker of such return can show to be accounted for by him in the return as rent-paying land.

Notice to be published by holders of estate in certain cases.

54. In the following cases, that is to say—

(1) when a new valuation or revaluation takes effect in any district or part of a district;

(2) when the rate fixed for the levy of the road cess or of the public works cess in any year is changed from the rate at which such cess was levied in the preceding year; and

(3) when the dates fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor under section 57 for payment of instalments of the cesses by holders of rent-free land are changed, the holder of every estate or tenure to whom any cesses are payable in respect of lands held free of rent shall cause a notice to be published in every village in which any such lands are situate, informing all concerned of the rate which has been fixed for the levy of such cesses respectively; and requiring every holder and owner of any such land of which the cesses are payable to the person who causes the notice to be published to pay the amount of the cesses specified in such notice as it falls due, until a similar notice of change of the amount shall be given.

Such notice shall contain the following information in respect of each holding of rent-free land which is entered separately in the Collector's valuation-roll:—

(1) a specification of the land in respect of which the cesses are payable;
(2) the name of the owner, holder, or occupier of such lands, if known;
(3) the annual value of such land as entered in the Collector's valuation-roll;
(4) the rate on each rupee of the value which has been fixed under the Act for the levy of the road cess and public works cess respectively for the year;
(5) the amount of the cesses payable in respect of each holding, calculated at such rates; and
(6) the dates fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor under section 57 for the payment of each instalment and the amount of each instalment.

Mode of publication.

55. Publication of the notice abovementioned may be lawfully made by affixing one copy of the same at some conspicuous place in the village in which such land is situate;

by depositing another copy thereof to be available for general inspection at any mál cutcherry of the estate or tenure in which such land is included, or at any other convenient place in the neighbourhood;

and by proclamation as herein next provided.

The proclamation shall be made by beat of drum throughout such village, and shall be to the effect that such notice has been so affixed and so deposited, that it is open to inspection at the mál cutcherry or other convenient place as above mentioned, and that every owner and holder of rent-free land is required to inform himself of the contents of such notice and to pay the amount of the cesses due by him accordingly.

56. After publication of the extracts from the roll as provided in section 52, and in cases in which publication of the notice mentioned in section 54 is required, after publication of such notice, and not otherwise, every owner and holder of any rent-free land included in such extract shall be bound to pay year by year to the holder of the estate or tenure on which the land held by him is deemed to form a part, the amount of the road cess and public works cess which may thereafter become due to such holder calculated on the annual value of such land as entered in such extracts, or on any other annual value which may have been determined by the Collector under section 53, at the full rate or rates which may have been fixed under this Act for the levy of such cesses respectively in the district generally for the year.

Owner of rent-free land bound to pay cess at full rate.

57. The payment of the cesses for each year by the holder of any land which is held rent-free shall be made by two equal instalments upon such days as shall be for that purpose appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor.

Instalments to be fixed by Lieutenant-Governor.

58. When an instalment of the cesses due on any rent-free land is not paid to the holder of the estate or tenure of which such land is deemed to form a part within one month of the date on which such instalment is payable, the holder of such estate or tenure shall be entitled to recover a sum equal to double the amount of such instalment due to him under sections 56 and 57, with interest on such sum calculated at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the date on which such instalment was payable, and with all costs of suit;

If instalments not paid within a month, treble the amount may be recovered.

Provided that such holder shall have paid to the Collector all sums due to such Collector up to date in respect of road cess and public works cess, and not otherwise.

59. If the holder of any estate or tenure shall have omitted to enter in his return any rent-free land, which under section 51 he was bound to enter in such return, and has failed to enter any such land in his return lodged with the Collector under the provisions of the "District Road Cess Act, 1871," such holder may at any time after the passing of this Act give in to the Collector a Supplementary Return showing the necessary particulars in respect of the land so omitted or not entered, and he shall thereupon pay to the Collector the amount of the cesses which would have been payable by him in respect of such land for the three years next preceding, or for any shorter period which may have elapsed since the estate or tenure was last valued.

Holders of estates, &c., may send in supplementary returns in respect of rent-free lands.

Such Supplementary Return shall to all intents and purposes have the same effect as a return duly made under the provisions of section 51.

60. Sections 51, 52, 53, and 54 shall be applicable to and in respect of any rent-free land included in a supplementary return as provided in the last preceding section.

Certain sections applicable.

61. The provisions of sections 57 and 58 shall be applicable to every amount which, as provided in section 56, may become payable by the owner and holder of any such rent-free land to the holder of any such estate or tenure after the fulfilment of the requirements in sections 52, 53, and 54 contained.

Sections applicable to amounts payable by owner, &c., of rent-free land.

62. The provisions of section 58 shall not be applicable to any such amount which may have become so payable, under the provisions of Bengal Act X of 1871 or of this Act, before the fulfilment of the requirements of the said sections 52, 53, and 54; but when any instalment of cess which may have become payable before the fulfilment of such requirements has not been paid to the holder of such estate or tenure on the date on which such instalment was payable, the holder of such estate or tenure may recover the amount of such instalment together with interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum on such amount, and with all costs of suit;

Section 58 not applicable to such amounts until sections 52, 53 and 54 are complied with.

Provided that no holder of an estate or tenure shall recover any amount under the provisions of this section, unless he has paid to the Collector all sums which became payable by him to such Collector on account of road cess and public works cess, at any date within the year in which the amount sought to be recovered became payable to such holder of an estate or tenure.

63. As soon as the said requirements shall have been fulfilled, the owner, or person in receipt of the rents and profits, or in possession and enjoyment of such rent-free land, shall be liable to pay the cesses thereafter falling due on such land to the holder of the estate or tenure, as provided in sections 56 and 57, and subject to the penalty for default mentioned in section 58.

Owner of rent-free land liable to pay cess in future.

64. (1.)—Every holder of an estate or tenure who has included any rent-free lands in any return made to the Collector in respect of his estate or tenure under the provisions of the "District Road Cess Act, 1871," and has paid to the Collector any cess payable under the said Act, or under the "Provincial Public Works Act, 1877," in respect of the said rent-free lands, may at any time after the commencement of this Act lodge with such Collector an additional return in the form given in Part IV of Schedule (A).

Additional return may be lodged.

Additional return of rent-free land entered in return under Act X of 1871 may be made.

(2.)—Such additional return shall be deemed to be a supplementary return within the meaning of section 59, and from the date of the inclusion of any such lands in such additional return the same consequences shall ensue, and the same rights and obligations accrue to the Collector and to the holder of such estate or tenure, and the same liabilities shall attach to the owner, holder and occupier of such lands as would have attached to them respectively if such lands had been included in a supplementary return given in under section 59.

Additional return to be deemed supplementary return.

65. All sums due to the holder of any estate or tenure under the provisions of this Chapter in respect of any land held rent-free may be recovered by such holder from any owner or holder of such rent-free land, or from any occupier of the same, by any means and any process by which the amount might be recovered if it were due on account of rent of a transferable tenure or holding, and subject to the same rules as to limitation;

Holders of estates, &c., how to recover from holders of rent-free lands.

Provided that if any such objection as is mentioned in section 53 has been made before the Collector, no proceedings shall be commenced, and no proceedings which have been commenced shall be continued, for recovery of cess in respect of the lands which are the subject of such objection, until such objection shall have been disposed of by the Collector.

Owner or holder of rent-free lands may be sued.

66. In every suit for the recovery of any such sum the person to whom the sum is due may proceed at his option either against the owner or holder of the rent-free land in respect of which such amount is due, or against the occupier thereof; and any decree obtained in such suit against any occupier of such land shall have the same effect and be followed by the same consequences in respect of the execution of such decree against the owner or holder of such land, and in respect of the sale of such land in such execution as if the suit had been brought and the decree given against such owner or holder of such land, but shall have effect against such occupier personally so long only as he remains in occupation of such land, and no longer.

Occupier may deduct cess paid from rent.

67. Whenever any occupier of land which is held rent-free by the owner thereof shall have paid any sum as cess due in respect of such land to any holder of an estate or tenure to whom such cess is payable, such occupier shall be entitled to deduct the sum so paid by him from the rent next thereafter payable by him to the owner of such land, until such sum is fully adjusted.

Notice to be served on holder of rent-free land requiring him to lodge return.

68. Notwithstanding anything in this Chapter contained, the Collector may at any time cause a notice as mentioned in section 16 to be served on the holder of any rent-free land which he shall consider not to have been entered in the return of any estate or tenure in which such land should have been included under the provisions of section 51. Such notice shall require the holder of such land to lodge at the office of the said Collector a return in the form in Schedule (A) contained in respect of such land; and on service of such notice the provisions of this Chapter shall no longer apply to such lands; but the same consequences shall ensue, and the same liabilities shall attach to the holder of such land as would have ensued and would have attached if such lands had constituted a revenue-free estate.

If the Collector has reason to believe that any land in respect of which he determines to serve such notice has been included in the return of any estate or tenure, he shall give notice of his intention to the holder of such estate or tenure, and shall alter such return as may be requisite, and shall correct the valuation and assessment of such estate or tenure as may be required.

If no notice served, such holder bound to notify omission to Collector.

69. If within one year of the commencement of this Act no notice has been served on the holder of any rent-free land as mentioned in section 68 requiring him to lodge a return in the office of the Collector, and if such land has not been included in any extracts from the returns of estates and tenures published by the Collector under section 52 or other similar section, the holder of such rent-free land shall be bound within one month of the expiration of such year to give information of such omission to the Collector, together with a description of the said land, a specification of the village or villages within which it is situate, the area in each village, and the amount of rent payable to him thereupon.

Collector thereupon to require such holder to make return.

70. On receipt of such information whether within the time prescribed or after the expiration thereof, the Collector may, by an order in writing, require such owner or holder to make a return of his land in the form in Schedule (A) contained, or, if the gross rental of such land does not exceed one hundred rupees, may order that such land shall be summarily valued under section 27 or section 28, and may proceed to make such valuation.

Such orders shall have the same effect and be followed by the same consequences as the issue of a notice by the Collector under section 68.

Liability of such holder to pay cesses.

71. As soon as any rent-free land has been valued by the Collector after the issue of a notice as provided in section 68, or after an order made under section 70, the holder of such land shall become liable to pay to the Collector the road cess and the public works cess due on such land, in accordance with such valuation, for the three years last preceding such valuation, at the full rates at which such cesses were respectively levied for each such year in the district generally, with interest calculated at twelve per centum per annum on each instalment from the date on which such instalment would have been payable if the land had been so valued at the last valuation of the district or part of a district.

Penalty for neglecting to give information to Collector.

72. Every holder of rent-free land who, being required by section 69 to give information to the Collector, voluntarily or negligently omits to give such information within the prescribed time shall be liable for such omission to such fine as the Collector shall think fit to impose, not exceeding fifty rupees, for such omission;

Provided that no such fine shall be imposed by the Collector for such omission on any holder of rent-free land who at any time after the expiration of the time prescribed shall of his own motion and otherwise that after the issue of any notice by the Collector in respect of his lands give such information to the Collector.

Such holder is not liable to pay cesses except to Collector or Deputy.

73. No owner or holder of rent-free land on whom a notice has been served by the Collector under section 68, or in respect of whose land an order has been made by the Collector under section 70, shall be liable to have the land to which such notice or order refers included in any return of an estate or tenure or to pay any amount as road cess or public works cess otherwise than to the Collector or to some person appointed by him in that behalf, unless, on a revaluation of any estate or tenure being made, the Collector shall by an order direct that for the future such land shall be included within such estate or tenure for the purposes of this Act; and upon such order being made the provisions of this Chapter in so far as they are applicable shall apply to the assessment and payment of road cess and public works cess in respect of such land.

CHAPTER V.—Valuation, assessment, and levy of cesses on mines, railways and other immovable property.

Notice to return profits.

74. On the commencement of this Act in any district, and thereafter before the close of each cess year, the Collector shall cause a notice to be served upon the owner, chief agent, manager or occupier of every mine, quarry, tramway, railway and other immovable property not included within the provisions of Chapter II and not being one of the tramways or railways mentioned in section 8; such notice shall be in the form in Schedule (E) contained, and shall require such owner, chief agent, manager or occupier to lodge in the office of the Collector within two months a return of the annual net profits of such property, calculated on the average of the annual net profits thereof for the last three years for which accounts have been made up.

The Collector may in his discretion extend the time allowed for lodging such return.

When property lies in different districts.

75. Whenever any property assessable under this Chapter lies in two or more districts under the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, the notice to furnish a return under section 74 shall be served on the owner, chief agent, manager or occupier of such property by or through the Collector of the district in which such owner, chief agent, manager or occupier may reside or have his chief place of business, and one return for the whole of such property shall suffice.

When property is partly in and partly outside Bengal.

76. Whenever any property assessable under this Chapter lies partly within and partly outside the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, the return furnished as required by section 74 shall state the total annual net profits calculated as aforesaid accruing from such property, and also the proportion of such profits which may reasonably be calculated to accrue in the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

If return not furnished or incorrect, Collector to make valuation.

77. If such return be not furnished within the period of two months from the date on which such notice was served; or within any extended time allowed by the Collector, or if the Collector shall deem that any return made in pursuance of such notice is untrue or incorrect, the Collector shall proceed to ascertain and determine by such ways or means as to him shall seem expedient the annual net profits of such property calculated as aforesaid.

Valuation on value of property.

78. If the Collector be unable to ascertain the annual net profits as aforesaid of any property assessable under this Chapter, he may, by such ways or means as to him shall seem expedient, ascertain and determine the value of such property, and shall thereupon determine six per centum on such value to be the annual net profits thereon.

Cost of valuation from whom to be recovered.

79. The expenses incurred in making any valuation under section 77 or section 78 may be recovered with all costs of the recovery thereof as provided in section 100 from the person who was bound to make such return, or who made the incorrect return.

Notice of valuation.

80. So soon as the Collector shall have ascertained and determined the annual net profits as aforesaid of any such property, he shall cause to be served upon the owner, chief agent, manager or occupier of such property a notice informing him of the amount of the annual net profits so ascertained and determined by him.

Valuations under this Chapter to be annual.

81. New valuations under this Chapter shall be made by the Collector every year, and the Collector may for that purpose cause such notices to be issued and served, and such returns to be made, and shall have such powers and authorities as are in this Part mentioned and conferred;

Declaration of annual net profits by owner for five years.

Provided that whenever any return made under section 74 shall be accepted by the Collector for any year, the owner, chief agent, manager or occupier of such property may, if he see fit, declare in writing at the time of such acceptance that the annual net profits set forth in such return may, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the annual net profits for each of the five years then next ensuing;

Effect of acceptance by Collector of declaration.

And if the Collector shall agree to accept such declaration, no new valuation shall be made for such property until the said five years shall have expired, or until a general revaluation of the district or part of a district be made under section 13, or until the revaluation of such property be specially ordered under section 15.

Notice of rate of cess and dates of payments.

82. When the rate of road cess and public works cess to be levied in the district upon property assessable under this Chapter shall have been determined for any year as in this Act provided, the Collector shall cause to be served on the owner, chief agent, manager or occupier of every such property a notice showing the amount of road cess and public works cess respectively payable in respect of such property, and specifying the date from which such cesses shall take effect. And such amount shall be payable by such owner, chief agent, manager or occupier to the Collector in two equal instalments—the first on the expiry of six months, the second on the expiry of nine months, after the date fixed as hereinbefore provided for the commencement of the cess year.

Recovery by occupier or owner who has paid in excess.

83. In any case in which the occupier of such property is a different person from the owner, and has paid in excess of half of the sum due as road cess and public works cess on account of any instalment, such occupier shall be entitled to deduct the amount of such excess from the next and subsequent instalments of rent payable in respect of such property; and every owner who has paid in excess of half of such sum due shall be entitled to recover the amount of such excess from the occupier thereof; provided that in no case shall an occupier deduct from his annual rent more than half of the rate of the road cess and public works cess on every rupee thereof.

How distributed when property in different districts.

84. The total of the cesses payable in respect of property assessable under this chapter, owned or occupied by the same person in two or more districts, shall be payable to the Collector of the district where the owner, chief agent, manager or occupier may reside or have his chief place of business, and shall be by him transmitted to the Collectors of the districts in respect of which such cesses shall be payable in the proportion in which the Committees of each districts shall be severally entitled thereto, as provided in section 85.

Determination of proportion of profits when property in different districts.

85. Whenever any property assessable under this Chapter lies in two or more districts subject to the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, the Lieutenant-Governor shall from time to time determine out of the total annual net profits stated in the return, or in the valuation of such profits accruing in the territories subject to him, and ascertained in any manner as aforesaid, the proportions in which such property shall be assessed in each of the said districts respectively, and the proportion of the road cess due thereon which shall be assigned to the Committee of each district concerned.

Service of notices under this Chapter.

86. Every notice under this Chapter may be served—

(a) by leaving it at the registered office (if any) of such owner, chief agent, manager or occupier; or

(b) by sending it by post in a letter addressed to such owner, chief agent, manager or occupier at his office, or, if he have more offices than one, at his principal office; or

(c) by giving it to such owner, chief agent, manager or occupier.

CHAPTER VI.—Special provisions for Orissa and Midnapore.

Collectors in Orissa and Midnapore may order certain revenue-free estates to be annexed to other estates for purposes of payment of cess.

87. In any district of the province of Orissa and in the district of Midnapore, the Collector may at any time, with the sanction of the Commissioner, order that any revenue-free estate not exceeding 500 standard bighas in extent, of which the valuation shall have been completed, shall, for the purpose of payment and levy of the cesses due in respect thereof, be annexed to any other estate within the ambit of which it is situate or which it adjoins.

Notice to be given to holder of estate of which such revenue-free estate is annexed.

88. Notice of such order shall be given by the Collector to the holder of the estate to which such revenue-free estate is ordered to be so annexed, and to such notice shall be appended a copy of the valuation-roll of the said revenue-free estate, and thereupon such holder shall be liable to pay annually to the Collector on account of such revenue-free estate road cess and public works cess at one-half of the rates which may be fixed under this Act for the levy of the said cesses respectively in the district generally for each year.

Notice to be given to holder of revenue-free estate.

89. Notice of such order shall also be given by the Collector to the holder of the said revenue-free estate and such notice shall require him to pay annually, and he shall thereupon be bound to pay to the holder of such other estate, road cess and public works cess at the full rates which may be fixed under this Act for the levy of the said cesses respectively in the district generally for each year.

Cesses payable by holder of revenue-free estates in such instalments as Lieutenant-Governor may direct.

90. Such cesses shall be so payable by the holder of the said revenue-free estates in two equal instalments on such dates as may be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor under section 42 for the payment of cess by the holders of revenue-free estates, or in such other instalments and on such other dates as the Lieutenant-Governor may direct, or if the Lieutenant-Governor shall so order, the whole amount so payable on account of such cesses for each year shall be payable in a single sum on any such date as the Lieutenant-Governor may appoint.

In default of payment as hereby required, the provisions of section 47 shall be applicable.

Notices to be served.

91. Whenever the service of a notice on the holder of a revenue-free estate is required by the provisions of section 40, the Collector shall cause such notice to be served, notwithstanding that the revenue-free estate may have been annexed to another estate as hereinbefore provided; and the Collector shall further cause a notice containing the same particulars to be served in respect of such revenue-free estate on the holder of the other estate to which it is under the provisions of section 87 annexed.

Collector may revoke orders passed under section 87.

92. The Collector may at any time, with the sanction of the Commissioner, revoke any order passed under section 87, and shall give notice of such revocation both to the holder of the revenue-free estate affected and to the holder of the other estate to which such revenue-free estate was annexed.

CHAPTER VII.—Miscellaneous.

Collector may appoint certain establishments.

93. The Collector, with the sanction of the Board of Revenue, may appoint such establishments as may be required for making valuations and revaluations under this Act, for making collections, recovering arrears, keeping accounts connected therewith, and generally for all purposes connected with such valuations, revaluations, collections, and recoveries, and other purposes of this Act, and may incur such other expenses as are requisite for such purposes, and the payment of such establishments and other charges on bills signed by the Collector shall be the first charge on the District Road Fund constituted as hereinafter provided.

Powers of Collector in making valuation.

94. For the purpose of making any valuation of lands directed by this Part, the Collector shall exercise the powers vested in Collectors by clause I of section 23, and clause I of section 24 of Regulation VII of 1822, except so far as the said clauses authorize any enquiry into rights or interests attaching to such lands.

Commissioner or Board may revise valuation.

95. Every valuation under this Part shall be open to revision by the Commissioner or Board of Revenue, and not otherwise.

False returns.

96. Any person who is bound to make any return under this Part shall be deemed to be legally bound to give notice and to furnish information to a public servant in respect of the same. If the Collector shall see ground for believing that any return made is false, he may prosecute the maker accordingly. And if the person so prosecuted is convicted, the Collector may proceed to make a valuation of the lands mentioned in such return by such ways and means as to him shall seem expedient.

Evidence.

97. Every return filed by or on behalf of any person in pursuance of the provisions of this Part shall bear the signature and address of such person, or his authorized agent, and shall be admissible in evidence against such person, but shall not be admissible in his favour.

Service of notices under this Part.

98. Every notice under this Part required to be served, except as otherwise expressly provided, may be served—

(1) by delivering the same to the person to whom it is directed, or on failure of such service, by posting the same on some conspicuous part of the house in which the said person resides, or by delivering the said notice to any agent authorized to appear generally for the person to whom such notice is directed; or

(2) by sending a registered letter containing such notice directed to the said person at his usual place of abode, or to the place where he may be known to reside; or

(3) by posting a copy of the notice at the mâl cutcherry of the estate or tenure to which the notice relates, or if no such mâl cutcherry be found, on some conspicuous place on such estate or tenure; and by delivering, in the case of estates paying their annual revenue by four instalments, another copy thereof to the agent who shall have paid an instalment of revenue next after the preparation of such notice. In all cases where two or more persons are holders of an estate or tenure, service of notice under this clause shall be deemed to be good and sufficient service on each and all of such persons.

Costs of service.

99. The costs of service of every notice and process by this Act required to be served shall in the first instance be defrayed from the District Road Fund, and subject to such rules as may be made by the Board of Revenue under section 100, shall be recoverable either from the person to whom such notice or process is addressed, or from the person owing to whose default such notice or process is issued, as the Collector may think fit; and every such amount shall be deemed to be due to the Collector, but when levied by the Collector shall be credited to the District Road Fund;

No costs for notice to be recovered unless notice is necessary.

Provided that no costs or other expenses whatever shall be recovered from any person in respect of the publication or issue of any proclamation or notice calling for any return, or giving intimation of any amount payable by any person as cess under this Act other than notices of demand to pay any amount of cess which has become due.

Dues under the Act how to be levied.

100. Every amount due, or which may become due to the Collector under the provisions of this Act in respect of any arrears of cess, of any expenses incurred, of any fee or costs payable, of any notices served, of any fines imposed or on any other account may be realized by such Collector by any process provided by any law for the time being in force for the realization of public demands; and shall be deemed to be a public demand under such law;

Provided that the District Road Committee shall indemnify the Collector for all expenses incurred, and for all costs and damages for which such Collector may become liable (whether in connection with suits before the civil courts or otherwise) in respect of any proceedings for the recovery of any such dues as aforesaid.

Collector may recover dues out of rent.

101. Instead of proceeding as provided by the last preceding section for the recovery of any sum due under this Act, or if after so proceeding the Collector shall have failed to find property belonging to the person from whom any such sum is due by the sale of which such sum may be fully recovered, the Collector may, if he see fit, after recording his opinion to that effect, cause a notification in form in Schedule (F) contained to be served for the estate or tenure in respect of which any such amount is due. Such notification shall be published by beat of drum in every village containing any land to which such notification relates, and a copy thereof shall be posted in a conspicuous place in every such village and at the mâl cutcherry of the estate or tenure to which such notification relates, if such cutcherry be found.

On the publication of such notification every payment of rent, save and except to the Collector or some person by him thereunto appointed, made after such publication until further order from the Collector shall be null and void;

and the Collector may recover by any process of law for the time being in force, by which he might recover rent due to the Government from a tenure-holder, under-tenant or ryot in an estate which is managed directly by the Collector, the rent then or thereafter to become due from any occupier, tenure-holder, under-tenant or ryot on the said estate or tenure until the amount due to the Collector with all costs shall be satisfied, whereupon the said notification shall be revoked.

The receipt of the Collector in respect of all sums paid to him as rent or so recovered shall be, to the extent of such sums, a valid discharge in respect of rent due by the occupier, tenure-holder, under-tenant or ryot, to whom such receipt is given.

Collector's claim to have priority.

In case the Collector shall see fit so to proceed, the claim for arrears of road cess and public works cess due from any estate or tenure for which a notice has been served as above provided shall have priority over any other demand or claim or lien subsisting thereupon other than the demand of Government revenue.

Lieutenant-Governor may invest any person with Collectors' powers.

102. The Lieutenant-Governor may at any time invest any person with the powers of a Collector under this Act to be exercised by such person under the control or supervision of the Collector, or independently of such control and supervision, as the Lieutenant-Governor shall direct.

Collector may delegate powers.

103. The Collector may, with the sanction of the Commissioner, delegate all or any of his powers and functions under this Act to be exercised, under the control and supervision of the Collector, by any Deputy Collector, Assistant Collector, Sub-Deputy Collector or other officer of like rank;

Provided that every order passed by such Deputy Collector, Assistant Collector, Sub-Deputy Collector or other officer shall be appealable to the Collector within fifteen days of such order being passed.

Appeals against valuation.

If it shall appear to the Lieutenant-Governor that the proceeds of the cess at the rate so determined will not suffice for such purpose, the Lieutenant-Governor may order that the cess shall be levied for the year in question at such rate as he may deem sufficient for such purpose, subject to the limit in section 6 provided.

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made for the better drainage and improvement of lands in the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal: It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

PRELIMINARY.

1. This Act may be called "The Bengal Drainage Act, 1880 :"

Short title.

It extends to all the territories for the time being under the administration of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal;

Extent.

and it shall come into force from the date on which it may be published in the Calcutta Gazette with the assent of the Governor-General.

Commencement.

2. Bengal Act V of 1871 (The Hughli and Burdwan Drainage Act) shall be repealed on and from the date upon which this Act comes into force, but, subject to the provisions of this Act, this repeal shall not affect the past operation of such Act, or anything duly done or suffered, or any right, privilege, obligation or liability, acquired, accrued or incurred thereunder.

Repeal of Bengal Act V of 1871.

3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context—

Interpretation clause.

"The Collector" means the officer in charge of the revenue jurisdiction of the district within which the lands which form the subject of a scheme under this Act, or the greater portion of such lands, are situate. If any doubt arises as to whether the greater portion of the lands is situate within one of two or more districts, the Board of Revenue shall decide the point and such decision shall be final:

"The Collector."

"The Commissioners" mean the Drainage Commissioners to be appointed under this Act:

"The Commissioners."

HIGH COURT NOTICES.

Circular Order issued by authority of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

CIVIL.

No. 15, dated the 20th March 1880.

It having been brought to the notice of the Judges that casual leave, meaning, as it does, "occasional absence from illness and other necessary causes," ought not to be formally granted, as no such power is now vested in District Judges, the Court are pleased to cancel Circular Memo. No. 10, dated 20th July 1875.

CRIMINAL.

No. 3, dated the 24th March 1880.

The High Court of Judicature is pleased to prescribe the annexed forms for recording confessions and examinations of accused persons, and to direct that such confessions and examinations be invariably recorded in the printed and prepared forms which will be supplied for the purpose by the Superintendent of Stationery.

2. The Court finds it necessary, at the same time, to call attention to the frequent failure of justice arising from the neglect of Magistrates to observe the indispensable forms in recording and attesting confessions, and to remind these officers how much often depends on their accurate observance of these forms. In some cases the neglect may be remedied at the cost of serious public inconvenience and loss of time; in others, it is irreparable, and may result in the escape of a guilty person. On the other hand, it is equally desirable that Magistrates should act with deliberation in examining persons brought before them for the purpose of making confessions, and should, as far as possible, satisfy themselves, that the confession is voluntary—and this not merely from the declaration of the accused but from an attentive observation of his demeanour.

3. The Code of Criminal Procedure being the basis of every Magistrate's exercise of functions, and its provisions having now been in force for many years, such omissions are inexcusable, and it will be matter for the Court's consideration, when such cases come before it, whether the conduct of the officer who is to blame shall not be brought conspicuously to the notice of the local Government.

4. Magistrates are desired to keep by them, for convenience sake, in every place where they are likely to be called upon to perform the duty of examining accused persons, copies of the forms now prescribed.

No. 114A.

From—The Auditors of the Accounts of the Municipal Corporation for the Town of Calcutta,

To—The Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Calcutta.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have the honor to inform you that we have audited the cash, and, with the exception of the Entally Manufactory, the store accounts of the Corporation of Calcutta, and have found them to be correct. The Entally Manufactory's accounts were not ready for audit.

2. The printed accounts of the several funds and loan accounts have been prepared in the same forms as those of last year, and in them will be found a comparison between the actuals and estimate. The result of this comparison calls for no special remarks in this report, but we would mention that the savings are attributable partly to the non-payment of charges which had fallen due during the year.

3. With reference to our last report, we have to repeat that the head of account "de-watering and filling up tanks" includes, on the receipt side, many items which are not items of revenue, and on the expenditure side amounts which are recoverable. The check over this account is not satisfactory. The register of lands and immovable property, which was directed to be opened on our recommendation in 1877, has been commenced, but is not yet completed. We also wish to bring to your notice the desirableness of maintaining a complete list of the movable property of the Commissioners. At present there is no such list, and therefore no proper check as to what becomes of such property.

4. In our last report it was noticed that the Commissioners had disallowed the cost of an iron latrine, Rs. 1,200, and of three street-bathing lamps, Rs. 1,050. No further orders have been produced for the adjustment of these charges which were paid out of the General and Water-rate Funds respectively.

5. The balances on the 31st December of the Stores and Suspense Accounts, as shown in the printed balance sheet, have been analysed and explained in detail with the following exceptions, which should now be investigated :—

1. Road Department recoverable charges.
2. Town Hall Lighting.
3. House Drainage recoverable.
4. Deposits for appeal.
5. Entally manufacture.
6. Excess receipts from sale of property distrained.
7. Interest payable on the several debenture loans.

6. We desire to bring to notice that the conditions under which the working of the Hackney Carriage Act was transferred from the Commissioner of Police to the Municipal Commissioners of Calcutta, as detailed in a letter from the Government of Bengal, Finance Department, No. 2024, dated the 22nd May 1878, require attention. No separate account is kept of the receipts and charges under the Act, or of the amount available for the improvement of carriage stands and stables in the town, and no payments have been made either to the Suburban or the Howrah Municipal Commissioners of their shares of the net receipts.

7. The following amounts are shewn in the balance sheet as held by the Collectors, Assessor, Inspector of Bazars, Engineer and Arrear Collection Departments, in unrealized rate and miscellaneous bills at the close of the year :—

		Rs.	A.	P.
Collector—House-rate	...	52,638	2	0
Lighting-rate	...	15,758	9	9
Nighting-soil	...	40,879	5	6
Water-rate	...	29,561	8	3
Police-rate	...	17,730	2	6
Miscellaneous bills	...	16,836	9	5
		1,73,407	6	5
Assessor—House-rate	...	43,707	6	6
Lighting-rate	...	27,649	9	0
Night-soil	...	1,20,567	4	9
Water-rate	...	51,937	8	0
Police-rate	...	30,975	7	0
		2,74,837	3	3
Arrear Collection Department—
House-rate	...	63,209	14	6
Lighting-rate	...	20,489	15	9
Night-soil	...	66,554	14	0
Water-rate	...	39,761	9	6
Police-rate	...	23,006	1	6
		2,13,016	7	3
Late Collector—Night-soil	...	905	12	9
Miscellaneous	...	6,948	4	8
		7,854	1	5
Engineer—Miscellaneous bills	...	187	7	9
Inspector of Bazars—Market rent bills	...	6,636	9	9
Grand Total	...	6,75,939	2	10

Stock of these bills was not, however, taken nor had detailed lists of them, except in the case of miscellaneous bills, been produced before us. The officers also, with whom the bills are supposed to be, have not, with the exception of the Assessor, acknowledged the correctness of the amounts at their debit. A comparison between the amounts at debit of these officers on the ledger and the accounts kept by the officers themselves is being made.

8 Besides these debit balances, the following balances at credit of the late Collector should be brought to your notice :—

	Rs.	A.	P
House-rate	7,882	4	0
Lighting-rate	927	9	0
Police-rate	610	12	3
Water-rate	256	6	3

Apparently these credit balances are the results of bills in 1878 having been made out and delivered to the Collector for realization without having been registered, and therefore without having been charged to his account. These bills, when realized, were credited to the Collector's account in due course, although when issued, they had not been debited to him. To what extent bills were thus made over to the Collector without having been registered and charged to his account is not known. The matter, we understand, has formed the subject of a special report by the Vice-Chairman

9. With reference to the receipts from the sale of land credited to the General Fund as revenue, we would remark that it would be more appropriate to credit such receipts to your capital account than to treat them as revenue of the year.

10. With reference to paragraph 31 of our last report it should be stated that no readjustment of the value of the tramway materials in the entally stores was made in 1879.

From—The Auditors of the Accounts of the Calcutta Police,

To—The Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Calcutta.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have the honor to inform you that we have audited the accounts of the Commissioner of Police for the year 1879 and have found them to be correct.

2. We annex the usual statement of receipts and expenditure, and a copy of the balance sheet of the 31st December 1879.

3. The statement closes with a deficit balance of Rs 9 647-15-10. which sum, together with Rs. 1,773-5-8 paid by Government in excess of their share of the expenditure, is recoverable from the Municipality. To meet these amounts there is only a sum of Rs. 6,643-0-3 at credit of the Police-rate Fund on the Municipal ledger, but there were bills outstanding on the 31st December 1879 on account of the Police rate, to the extent of Rs. 71,705-11-0.

4 The comparison between the actual receipts and expenditure and the estimates will be found in the annual accounts which have been passed by us, and call for no special remarks in this report.

5. The safe custody receipt of the Bank of Bengal for the Government Promissory Notes, which belong to the Calcutta Police Superannuation Fund, has been produced to us, and the balances of the advance and deposit accounts have been analysed and explained to us in detail.

A. MACKENZIE,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

[First Publication.]

The 7th May 1880.—The following Rules for Cultivation Leases of small lots of Waste Land in the Regulation District of Chittagong are published for general information :—

These rules shall be applicable to all such waste lands being the property of Government and not included in, or required for inclusion in, other settlements, taluki or other, within the limits of the Regulation District of Chittagong, as shall from time to time be applied for by small capitalists for the purposes of ordinary native cultivation.

2. Such lands so applied for shall, with the exception hereinafter provided, be divided into lots of about 50 acres, and their leases disposed of by public auction to the highest bidder. The land shall be divided into lots by the Collector, either according to the wishes of applicants or as may be convenient, but he must be very careful to define the lot as clearly as possible at time of sale.

3. The first lease shall run in every case to the general year of resettlement for the district, viz 1898 A.D., and the lessee shall have a right of resettlement on such terms and for such period as may then be fixed, provided that the resettlement shall not be for a less period than 20 years.

4. Selected tracts of available waste land shall be put up to auction from time to time. A general notice shall be issued setting forth that leases of the waste lands situated in the mouza or locality specified, will be put up to public auction on a specified date in such lots not exceeding 50 acres as may be applied for, and inviting persons who may wish to bid for any lot or lots of the said lands to put in written application for the same within one month from the date of the publication of the notice.

5. This general notice shall be in the form set out in Appendix A, and shall be published by posting up copies in the offices of the Settlement Officer and the Collector, in the police-station within whose jurisdiction the village lies, and in some conspicuous part of the villages containing or adjoining the tract.

6. The applications for leases therein invited shall be required to contain—

(1) The name, father's name, and residence of the applicant;
(2) A specification of the area, situation, boundaries, and general description of the land applied for, so far as they can be ascertained without a detailed survey.

7. On the date fixed in the general notice, all plots that have been applied for shall be put up to auction and leased to the highest bidder.

8. Plots subsequently applied for shall from time to time be put up to auction and disposed of in like manner.

9. At time of sale the Collector shall be careful to notify that the sale is made subject to these rules.

10. It will in every case be in the discretion of the Collector, Settlement Officer, or other officer empowered to hold auctions, when putting up the leases to public competition, to classify the plots as first or second class waste, and to fix the upset rates accordingly.

Those rates will be—

For first class waste.—From the first to the end of the fifth year, at two annas an acre.

From the sixth to the end of the tenth year, at five annas an acre.

Cultivation then found to be measured and assessed at Rs. 2 an acre, the waste remaining at five annas an acre.

For second class waste.—From the first to the end of the fifth year, at one anna and a quarter an acre.

From the sixth to the end of the tenth year, at two annas and a half an acre.

Cultivation then found to be measured and assessed at Re. 1-4 an acre, the waste remaining at two annas and a half an acre.

11. It shall be a condition of the sale that at the end of the tenth year of the lease, or as soon after as the Collector may think proper, a measurement of the land under cultivation may be made, and the assessment re-adjusted in respect of the area so found, according to the above rates. Any sunn and gorjon kholas found shall also then be assessed at fair rates. One more similar measurement and re-adjustment of the assessment may be made at any time after the end of the fifteenth year, after which no further measurement or re-adjustment of assessment shall be made till the lease expires.

12. The purchasers of the lots, within one week after the auction, shall deposit the amount of the first year's rental, which shall be taken to cover the expense of mapping, measuring, and demarcating the lots; and no further payment on this account shall be required from the lessee. But the lessee shall bear the cost of clearing the boundary trace when it passes through jungle. If the amount of the first year's rental be not deposited within one week as required above, plus the estimated cost of clearing the boundary trace when necessary, the sale may at the discretion of the Collector be held void, and the lease again put up to auction.

13. An amin shall then be deputed to the village to measure and map the lots and to demarcate the boundaries

14. The map shall be on the scale of 32 inches to the mile, and shall show all natural features of the plots, such as khals and hills, and shall also show all public pathways. The position of the plot shall in every case be fixed by an offset taken from some permanent and recognizable landmark in the vicinity.

15. The amin shall prepare a field-book of each lot, showing clearly the position and identification of the lands lying within its boundary and also the total area.

16. In demarcating the lots natural boundaries shall be followed as far as possible. The boundaries shall in every case be further demarcated by marks, consisting of posts or tree stems set in mounds of earth at every angle of the boundary On receipt of the amin's report a lease shall be granted to the purchaser in a form which shall be the counterpart of the form of kabuliyat given in Appendix B, together with a copy of the amin's map.

17. If at the time of giving possession of the lot to the lessee any dispute shall arise as to its boundaries or its identity with the lot of which he purchased the lease, the purchaser shall be bound by the decision of the Collector, and if dissatisfied therewith, may throw up the lease, in which case the amount paid as purchase-money will be repaid to him without interest, after deducting any actual expenses incurred on survey, demarcation, or otherwise.

18. Any land covered by the lease which may at any time be required for a public purpose, may be taken up by Government free of cost, a reduction being made in the rent payable under the lease proportional to the area taken up by Government; but the value of any improvement or property therein shall be paid to the lessee, and shall be assessed under the provisions of the law in force for the time being for the acquisition of land for public purposes.

19. The Government reserves to itself the right to all minerals on the lands which may be leased, together with such rights of way and other reasonable facilities as may be requisite for working, getting, and carrying away such minerals.

20. The title conveyed by the lease shall be heritable and transferable, provided that no transfer shall be made of less than the whole area, and that no transfer shall be valid as against Government, but shall, on the contrary, be equivalent to a surrender of the lease, unless notice of the transfer shall have been given by the transferee to the Collector within two months of the transfer.

21. No sub-tenure inconsistent with the conditions, or for a period beyond the term of the lease, can be granted by the lessee, and if the lessee creates an undertenure he shall be bound to impose a condition prohibiting his undertenant from creating any lower undertenure. Such undertenant shall be bound to let to cultivating ryots only.

22. In the case of lands exposed to salt-water inundation and requiring to be protected by embankment, the above rules shall be subject to the following modifications:—

(a.) The Collector or other officer empowered in that respect may, at his discretion, offer such lands to auction in lots of such area greater than 50 acres as may be applied for either by a single applicant or by several applicants jointly: provided that such area be not more than can, in the circumstances of the locality, be effectively protected by a single continuous outer line of embankment, and shall in no case exceed 200 acres if settled with a single applicant, or 50 acres per each applicant if with several applicants jointly.

(b.) The outer boundary of the grant having been duly demarcated and boundary marks placed by the amin, the applicants shall be required, on pain of forfeiture of the grant in case of default, to complete the demarcation of boundary, within one year from the date of auction, by the erection, at their own cost, of the necessary embankment.

(c.) In the case of a joint application by several persons, the distribution amongst them of the land within the joint embankment shall be matter of private agreement among t themselves, and they shall be jointly and severally responsible for the rent of the whole.

23. The rent payable on waste lands leased under these rules shall be paid to the same persons and in the same manner as the revenue payable from Noabad taluks. The last days of payment will be the same as those fixed for payment of Government revenue by zemindars in the Chittagong district.

24. Payment of the rent due on leases granted under these rules shall be enforced and arrears realized by the same process as in the case of Noabad taluks.

1. I enter into a temporary jungleboori settlement at progressive rates for the above-mentioned lands for a term of years, from 12 B to B, and agree* to pay the revenue mentioned above during the aforesaid period, and hereby enter into this engagement with the following conditions; and I declare the said engagement binding not only on myself, but also on my heirs, representatives, and assignees precisely as if it had been executed by them.

* In the case of joint leases under Rule 22, insert here the words "and hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves" and alter the wording throughout as necessary.

2. I will pay annually the aforesaid revenue to such person and at such place as the Collector may direct in accordance with the instalments therein set forth,—that is to say, from the first to the end of the fifth year Rs. , from the sixth to the end of the tenth year Rs. . At the end of the tenth year, or as soon after as the Collector may think proper, a measurement may be made, and the area then found under cultivation shall thenceforth be assessed at the said rate of an acre, the waste remaining at annas an acre. All sunn and gorjon kholas then found will also be thenceforth assessed at fair rates. One similar measurement and adjustment of assessment may be made at any time after the expiration of the fifteenth year; and I will regularly pay the amount of assessment as so re-adjusted.

3. The title conveyed by this lease is heritable and transferable, provided however that I am not empowered to divide this lot or to transfer it except as a whole, or to create therein any undertenure beyond the term of lease, or on terms inconsistent with the terms thereof. No transfer shall be valid as against Government, but on the contrary be equivalent to a surrender of this lease, unless notice of the transfer be given by the transferee to the Collector within two months of the transfer.

4 If I create any undertenure, I will impose on the undertenant a condition that he shall not create any lower undertenure, but shall let the land to cultivating ryots only. Any undertenure which may be created by any person to whom I may sublet, shall be invalid and liable to be set aside.

5. I shall not raise any objection to the full and punctual payment of the said revenue on the score of inundation, drought, depredation by wild beasts, diluvion, desertion, death, or other accident affecting the value of the said land or the outturn thereof; and I shall have no claim to abatement of revenue on any such account.

6. On the occurrence of any arrear in the payment of revenue, the Collector may sell the lot by auction under the provisions of Act XI of 1859, or recover the amount due by issue of certificates under any law for the time being in force relating to the recovery of arrears of revenue or of other public demands.

7. I shall not interfere with any right of the villagers relating to grazing cattle and taking fuel. I shall not fell any of the following timbers growing on the lands of my settlement without the special permission of the Collector, nor shall I allow any other person to do so; and I have no power to sell them. Such trees are exclusively Government property:—

1. Jarool.	4. Shagoon.	7. Chowangiri.
2 Telsur.	5. Gurjun.	8. Chagaroshi.
3. Toon.	6. Chapalish.	9. Gamar.

8. I have no right to rivers, fisheries, and mines, which are all Government property. The Government also reserves to itself the right to all minerals on the lands, together with such rights of way and other reasonable facilities as may be requisite for working, getting, and carrying away such minerals.

9. Beyond the fixed Government revenue and the things mentioned above, the Government shall have no claim to any profit which may accrue from the land included in this engagement during the currency of this engagement.

10. Any land covered by the lease which may at any time be required for a public purpose may be taken up by Government free of cost, a deduction being made in the amount of assessment payable under the lease proportional to the area so taken up, and compensation being made for the value of any improvement or property therein under the provisions of the law in force for the time being for the acquisition of land for public purposes.

11. I shall be at liberty to bring under cultivation waste lands covered by this engagement and to fix rent thereon.

12. † I will from time to time erect and repair the embankments, drainage channels, and outlets, in order to prevent the encroachment of any sea or river on the said lands, or the great accumulation of the water thereon. In case of my failure to do so, the Government may enter on the land and take up the repairs, and may recover the costs of the same with all incidental charges, as if the same were an arrear of revenue due on this lot.

† In the case of leases granted under rule 22. "I (or we) will, within years from the date of this lease, erect and thenceforward from time to time repair and renew such sufficient embankments, drainage channels, and outlets, as shall serve effectually to protect the said lands from any encroachment of any sea or river, or any great accumulation of water thereon. In case of my (or our) failure to do so, the Government may enter on the land and take up the repairs, and may recover the costs of the same with all incidental charges, as if the same were an arrear of revenue due from the lot.

9. I will not allow any thief, dacoit, proclaimed offender, or notable bad character to find refuge within the precincts of the said lands. I will promptly furnish all information which I am or may be required by law to give. I will aid the police in the apprehension of offenders.

13. For violation of any of the conditions of this engagement, the Government will be at liberty to annul this engagement, and thereupon I shall lose all right in the lot.

14. Unless I am evicted from the lot during the currency of the present settlement in accordance with the conditions of this agreemant, I or my heirs or assigns shall be entitled, at the end of this term of settlement, to resettlement on such terms and for such period not being less than twenty years as may then be fixed by Government, but in case of my refusal to engage for the payment of the amount of revenue which Government may hereafter deem expedient to fix for the land included in this engagement, I shall be liable to ejectment from the land, and I having no proprietary right, shall not have any claim to malikanah.

NOTIFICATION.

The 4th February 1880.—The Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to publish for general information the following Order in Council, and the Regulations appended thereto, for preventing collisions at sea, which will come into force on the 1st September 1880.

H. J. REYNOLDS,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August 1879.

PRESENT:

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it was enacted that on and after the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, or such later day as might be fixed for the purpose by Order in Council, the Regulations contained in the table marked C in the schedule to the said Act should come into operation and be of the same force as if they were enacted in the body of the said Act; but that Her Majesty might from time to time, on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, by Order in Council, annul or modify any of the said Regulations, or make new Regulations in addition thereto or in substitution therefor; and that any alterations in, or additions to, such Regulations made in manner aforesaid should be of the same force as the Regulations in the said schedule:

And whereas by the same Act it was further provided that whenever it should be made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of any foreign country was willing that the Regulations for preventing collisions contained in Table C in the schedule to the said Act, or such other Regulations for preventing collisions as are for the time being in force under the said Act, should apply to the ships of such country when beyond the limits of British jurisdiction, Her Majesty might, by Order in Council, direct that such Regulations should apply to the ships of the said foreign country, whether within British jurisdiction or not; and it was further provided by the said Act that whenever an Order in Council had been issued applying any Regulation made by, or in pursuance of, the said Act to the ships of any foreign country, such ships should in all cases arising in any British court, be deemed to be subject to such Regulation, and should, for the purpose of such Regulation, be treated as if they were British ships:

And whereas by an Order in Council made in pursuance of the said recited Act, and dated the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, Her Majesty was pleased to direct:—First, that the Regulations contained in the schedule to the said Act should be modified by the substitution for such Regulations of certain Regulations appended to the said Order;

Secondly, that the said Regulations appended to the said Order should, on and after the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, apply to French ships, whether within British jurisdiction or not:

And whereas by several Orders in Council subsequently made, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that the Regulations appended to the said Order of the ninth of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, should apply to ships of the countries specified in the said Orders, whether within British jurisdiction or not:

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, Her Majesty, on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, was pleased to make certain additions to the Regulations appended to the said first-recited Order in Council, for the purpose of explaining Articles 11 and 13 of the said Regulations, and of removing doubt and misapprehension concerning the effect of the said two Articles:

And whereas the Admiralty and the Board of Trade have jointly recommended to Her Majesty that the Regulations contained in the Order in Council dated the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the additions to the said Regulations contained in the said Order in Council of the thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, shall be annulled from the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and that there shall be substituted for the said Regulations and additions respectively the new Regulations hereinafter set forth:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the governments of the several foreign countries mentioned in the second schedule hereto are respectively willing that the Regulations contained in the first schedule hereto shall apply to ships of the said countries respectively, whether within British jurisdiction or not:

Now therefore Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct:—

First, that on and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, the Regulations appended to the said order in Council of the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the additions to the said Regulations contained in the said Order in Council of the thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, shall be annulled, and that there shall be substituted for the said Regulations and additions respectively the new Regulations contained in the first schedule hereto.

Second, that the said Regulations contained in the said first schedule hereto shall, from and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, apply to ships of the countries mentioned in the said second schedule hereto, whether within British jurisdiction or not.

C. L. PEEL.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS FOR PREVENTING COLLISIONS AT SEA.

Preliminary.

ART. 1. In the following rules every steam-ship which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing ship; and every steam-ship which is under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a ship under steam.

Rules Concerning Lights.

ART. 2. The lights mentioned in the following Articles, numbered 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11, and no others, shall be carried in all weathers, from sunset to sunrise.

ART. 3. A seagoing steam-ship when under way shall carry—

(a.) On or in front of the foremast, at a height above the hull of not less than 20 feet, and if the breadth of the ship exceeds 20 feet then at a height above the hull not less than such breadth, a bright white light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 20 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light 10 points on each side of the ship, viz. from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on either side; and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least five miles.

(b.) On the starboard side, a green light so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the starboard side; and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles.

(c.) On the port side, a red light, so constructed as to show an uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass; so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles.

(d.) The said green and red side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

ART. 4. A steam ship, when towing another ship, shall, in addition to her side lights, carry two bright white lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, so as to distinguish her from other steam-ships. Each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position, as the white light which other steam-ships are required to carry.

ART. 5. A ship, whether a steam-ship or a sailing ship, when employed either in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable, or which from any accident is not under command, shall at night carry in the same position as the white light which steam-ships are required to carry, and, if a steam-ship, in place of that light, three red lights in globular lanterns, each not less than 10 inches in diameter, in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart: and shall by day carry in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, in front of but not lower than her foremast head, three black balls or shapes, each two feet in diameter.

These shapes and lights are to be taken by approaching ships as signals that the ship using them is not under command, and cannot therefore get out of the way.

The above ships when not making any way through the water, shall not carry the side lights, but when making way shall carry them.

ART. 6. A sailing ship under way, or being towed, shall carry the same lights as are provided by Article 3 for a steam-ship under way, with the exception of the white light, which she shall never carry.

ART. 7. Whenever, as in the case of small vessels during bad weather, the green and red, side lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept on deck, on their respective sides of the vessel, ready for use: and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the colour of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with proper screens.

ART. 8. A ship, whether a steam-ship or a sailing ship, when at anchor, shall carry where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding 20 feet above the hull, a white light, in a globular lantern of not less than eight inches in diameter, and so constructed as to show a clear uniform and unbroken light visible all round the horizon, at a distance of at least one mile.

ART. 9. A pilot vessel, when engaged on her station on pilotage duty, shall not carry the lights required for other vessels, but shall carry a white light at the mast head visible all round the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals which shall never exceed fifteen minutes.

A pilot vessel, when not engaged on her station on pilotage duty, shall carry lights similar to those of other ships.

ART. 10. (a)—Open fishing boats and other open boats when under way shall not be obliged to carry the side lights required for other vessels; but every such boat shall in lieu thereof have ready at hand a lantern with a green glass on the one side and a red glass on the other side; and on the approach of or to other vessels such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

(b)—A fishing vessel and an open boat when at anchor shall exhibit a bright white light.

(c)—A fishing vessel when employed in drift net fishing, shall carry on one of her masts two red lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart.

(d)—A trawler at work shall carry on one of her masts two lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, the upper light red and the lower green, and shall also either carry the side lights required for other vessels, or if the side lights cannot be carried, have ready at hand the coloured lights as provided in Aricle 7, or a lantern with a red and a green glass as described in paragraph (a) of this Article.

(e)—Fishing vessels and open boats shall not be prevented from using a flare-up in addition if they desire to do so.

(f)—The lights mentioned in this Article are substituted for those mentioned in the 12th, 13th, and 14th Articles of the Convention between France and England scheduled to the British Sea Fisheries Act, 1868.

(g)—All lights required by this Article, except side lights, shall be in globular lanterns so constructed as to show all round the horizon.

ART. 11. A ship which is being overtaken by another shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned ship a white light or a flare-up light.

Sound Signals for Fog, &c.

ART. 12. A steam-ship shall be provided with a steam whistle, or other efficient steam sound signal, so placed that the sound may not be intercepted by any obstructions, and with an efficient fog horn to be sounded by bellows or other mechanical means, and also with an efficient bell. A sailing ship shall be provided with a similar fog horn and bell.

In fog, mist, or falling snow, whether by day or night, the signals described in this Article shall be used as follows, that is to say—

(a)—A steam-ship under way shall make with her steam whistle, or other steam sound signal, at intervals of not more than two minutes, a prolonged blast.

(b)—A sailing ship under way shall make with her fog horn, at intervals of not more than two minutes, when on the starboard tack one blast, when on the port tack two blasts in succession, and when with the wind abaft the beam three blasts in succession.

(c)—A steam ship and a sailing ship when not under way shall, at intervals of not more than two minutes, ring the bell.

Speed of Ships to be moderate in Fog, &c.

ART. 13. Every ship, whether a sailing ship or steam-ship, shall in a fog, mist, or falling snow go at a moderate speed.

Steering and Sailing Rules.

ART. 14. When two sailing ships are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other as follows, viz :—

(a)—A ship which is running free shall keep out of the way of a ship which is close-hauled.

(b)—A ship which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a ship which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.

(d)—When both are running free with the wind on the same side, the ship which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the ship which is to leeward.

(e)—A ship which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other ship.

ART. 15. If two ships under steam are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

This Article only applies to cases where ships are meeting end on, or nearly end on, in such a manner as to involve risk of collision, and does not apply to two ships which must, if both keep on their respective courses, pass clear of each other

The only cases to which it does apply are, when each of the two ships is end on, or nearly end on to the other, in other words, to cases in which by day each ship sees the mast of the other in a line, or nearly in a line, with her own; and by night, to cases in which each ship is in such a position as to see both the side lights of the other.

It does not apply by day to cases in which a ship sees another ahead crossing her own course; or by night, to cases where the red light of one ship is opposed to the red light of the other, or where the green light of one ship is opposed to the green light of the other, or where a red light without a green light, or a green light without a red light is seen ahead, or where both green and red lights are seen anywhere but ahead.

ART. 16. If two ships under steam are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, the ship which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other.

ART. 17. If two ships, one of which is a sailing ship and the other a steam-ship, are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam-ship shall keep out of the way of the sailing ship.

ART. 18. Every steam-ship when approaching another ship, so as to involve risk of collision, shall slacken her speed, or stop and reverse if necessary.

ART. 19. In taking any course authorized or required by these Regulations a steam-ship under way may indicate that course to any other ship which she has in sight by the following signals on her steam whistle, viz:—

One short blast to mean—"I am directing my course to starboard."
Two short blasts to mean—"I am directing my course to port."
Three short blasts to mean—"I am going full speed astern."

The use of these signals is optional; but if they are used, the course of the ship must be in accordance with the signal made.

ART. 20. Notwithstanding anything contained in any preceding Article every ship whether a sailing ship or steam-ship overtaking any other, shall keep out of the way of the overtaken ship.

ART. 21. In narrow channels every steam-ship shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fair way or midchannel which lies on the starboard side of such ship.

ART. 22. Where by the above rules one of two ships is to keep out of the way the other shall keep her course.

ART. 23. In obeying and construing these rules due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation, and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger.

No Ship under any circumstances to neglect proper precautions.

ART. 24. Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any ship, or the owner, or master, or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper look-out, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case.

Reservation of Rules for Harbours and Inland Navigation.

ART. 25. Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of a special rule duly made by local authority relative to the navigation of any harbour, river, or inland navigation.

Special Lights for Squadrons and Convoys.

ART. 26. Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of any special rules made by the Government of any nation with respect to additional station and signal lights for two or more ships of war, or for ships sailing under convoy.

The 7th May 1880.—The following Rules for Cultivation Leases of small lots of Waste Land in the Regulation District of Chittagong are published for general information :—

These rules shall be applicable to all such waste lands being the property of Government and not included in, or required for inclusion in, other settlements, taluki or other, within the limits of the Regulation District of Chittagong, as shall from time to time be applied for by small capitalists for the purposes of ordinary native cultivation.

2. Such lands so applied for shall, with the exception hereinafter provided, be divided into lots of about 50 acres, and their leases disposed of by public auction to the highest bidder. The land shall be divided into lots by the Collector, either according to the wishes of applicants or as may be convenient, but he must be very careful to define the lot as clearly as possible at time of sale.

3. The first lease shall run in every case to the general year of resettlement for the district, viz. 1898 A.D., and the lessee shall have a right of resettlement on such terms and for such period as may then be fixed, provided that the resettlement shall not be for a less period than 20 years.

4. Selected tracts of available waste land shall be put up to auction from time to time. A general notice shall be issued setting forth that leases of the waste lands situated in the mouza or locality specified, will be put up to public auction on a specified date in such lots not exceeding 50 acres as may be applied for, and inviting persons who may wish to bid for any lot or lots of the said lands to put in written application for the same within one month from the date of the publication of the notice.

5. This general notice shall be in the form set out in Appendix A, and shall be published by posting up copies in the offices of the Settlement Officer and the Collector, in the police-station within whose jurisdiction the village lies, and in some conspicuous part of the villages containing or adjoining the tract.

6. The applications for leases therein invited shall be required to contain--

(1) The name, father's name, and residence of the applicant;

(2) A specification of the area, situation, boundaries, and general description of the land applied for, so far as they can be ascertained without a detailed survey.

7. On the date fixed in the general notice, all plots that have been applied for shall be put up to auction and leased to the highest bidder.

8. Plots subsequently applied for shall from time to time be put up to auction and disposed of in like manner.

9. At time of sale the Collector shall be careful to notify that the sale is made subject to these rules.

10. It will in every case be in the discretion of the Collector, Settlement Officer, or other officer empowered to hold auctions, when putting up the leases to public competition, to classify the plots as first or second class waste, and to fix the upset rates accordingly.

Those rates will be—

For first class waste.—From the first to the end of the fifth year, at two annas an acre.

From the sixth to the end of the tenth year, at five annas an acre.

Cultivation then found to be measured and assessed at Rs. 2 an acre, the waste remaining at five annas an acre.

For second class waste.—From the first to the end of the fifth year, at one anna and a quarter an acre.

From the sixth to the end of the tenth year, at two annas and a half an acre.

Cultivation then found to be measured and assessed at Re. 1-4 an acre, the waste remaining at two annas and a half an acre.

11. It shall be a condition of the sale that at the end of the tenth year of the lease, or as soon after as the Collector may think proper, a measurement of the land under cultivation may be made, and the assessment re-adjusted in respect of the area so found, according to the above rates. Any sunn and gorjon kholas found shall also then be assessed at fair rates. One more similar measurement and re-adjustment of the assessment may be made at any time after the end of the fifteenth year, after which no further measurement or re-adjustment of assessment shall be made till the lease expires.

12. The purchasers of the lots, within one week after the auction, shall deposit the amount of the first year's rental, which shall be taken to cover the expense of mapping, measuring, and demarcating the lots; and no further payment on this account shall be required from the lessee. But the lessee shall bear the cost of clearing the boundary trace when it passes through jungle. If the amount of the first year's rental be not deposited within one week as required above, plus the estimated cost of clearing the boundary trace when necessary, the sale may at the discretion of the Collector be held void, and the lease again put up to auction.

13. An amin shall then be deputed to the village to measure and map the lots and to demarcate the boundaries.

14. The map shall be on the scale of 32 inches to the mile, and shall show all natural features of the plots, such as khals and hills, and shall also show all public pathways. The position of the plot shall in every case be fixed by an offset taken from some permanent and recognizable landmark in the vicinity.

15. The amin shall prepare a field-book of each lot, showing clearly the position and identification of the lands lying within its boundary and also the total area.

16. In demarcating the lots natural boundaries shall be followed as far as possible. The boundaries shall in every case be further demarcated by marks, consisting of posts or tree stems set in mounds of earth at every angle of the boundary On receipt of the amin's report a lease shall be granted to the purchaser in a form which shall be the counterpart of the form of kabuliyat given in Appendix B, together with a copy of the amin's map.

17. If at the time of giving possession of the lot to the lessee any dispute shall arise as to its boundaries or its identity with the lot of which he purchased the lease, the purchaser shall be bound by the decision of the Collector, and if dissatisfied therewith, may throw up the lease, in which case the amount paid as purchase-money will be repaid to him without interest, after deducting any actual expenses incurred on survey, demarcation, or otherwise.

18. Any land covered by the lease which may at any time be required for a public purpose, may be taken up by Government free of cost, a reduction being made in the rent payable under the lease proportional to the area taken up by Government; but the value of any improvement or property therein shall be paid to the lessee, and shall be assessed under the provisions of the law in force for the time being for the acquisition of land for public purposes.

19. The Government reserves to itself the right to all minerals on the lands which may be leased, together with such rights of way and other reasonable facilities as may be requisite for working, getting, and carrying away such minerals.

20. The title conveyed by the lease shall be heritable and transferable, provided that no transfer shall be made of less than the whole area, and that no transfer shall be valid as against Government, but shall, on the contrary, be equivalent to a surrender of the lease, unless notice of the transfer shall have been given by the transferee to the Collector within two months of the transfer.

21. No sub-tenure inconsistent with the conditions, or for a period beyond the term of the lease, can be granted by the lessee, and if the lessee creates an undertenure he shall be bound to impose a condition prohibiting his undertenant from creating any lower undertenure. Such undertenant shall be bound to let to cultivating ryots only.

22. In the case of lands exposed to salt-water inundation and requiring to be protected by embankment, the above rules shall be subject to the following modifications:—

(a.) The Collector or other officer empowered in that respect may, at his discretion, offer such lands to auction in lots of such area greater than 50 acres as may be applied for either by a single applicant or by several applicants jointly: provided that such area be not more than can, in the circumstances of the locality, be effectively protected by a single continuous outer li e of embankment, and shall in no case exceed 200 acres if settled with a single applicant, or 50 acres per each applicant if with several applicants jointly.

(b.) The outer boundary of the grant having been duly demarcated and boundary marks placed by the amin, the applicants shall be required, on pain of forfeiture of the grant in case of default, to complete the demarcation of boundary, within one year from the date of auction, by the erection, at their own cost, of the necessary embankment.

(c.) In the case of a joint application by several persons, the distribution amongst them of the land within the joint embankment shall be matter of private agreement among t themselves, and they shall be jointly and severally responsible for the rent of the whole.

23. The rent payable on waste lands leased under these rules shall be paid to the same persons and in the same manner as the revenue payable from Noabad taluks. The last days of payment will be the same as those fixed for payment of Government revenue by zemindars in the Chittagong district.

24. Payment of the rent due on leases granted under these rules shall be enforced and arrears realized by the same process as in the case of Noabad taluks.

HIGH COURT NOTICES.

Circular Order issued by authority of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

CIVIL.

No. 18, dated the 26th April 1880.

At the desire of the Government of Bengal, the attention of all District Judges is invited to the necessity for their insisting on a compliance by the Courts subordinate to them with the rules * on the subject of the transmission of the records of decided cases from their Courts to the Judges' record-rooms.

* Circular Order No. 16, dated 30th July 1873.
Circular order No. 76, dated 17th January 1845.

2. The neglect of these rules results in an increase of charge to Government for the conveyance of records, and, in the case of appeal, necessitates the sending for records singly, at great expense in postage.

3. Where single files are called for, either by the lower Courts from the Judge's record-room, or by the Judge from the lower Courts, the party at whose instance the call is made should be required to pay the postal charges, as prescribed in circular order No. 10, dated 28th March 1872, which has never been repealed, though it has been omitted from the collected circulars.

No. 19, dated the 28th April 1880.

By Resolution (Financial) No. 1763, dated 24th July 1873, the Government of India directed that the record-keeper of every Court should, when a case was decided, and the record made over to his custody, punch a second hole in each court fee label, distinct from the first, and note his doing so at the same time. Owing to the insufficiency of the establishment attached to the record-rooms in some districts, for the work thus imposed upon it, strict effect has not been given to this order. The Government having, however, now sanctioned a sufficient staff of officers for employment in all district record-rooms, the Court direct that District Judges do require this order to be strictly carried out in future.

2. The Circular order issued by the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, in October 1878, a copy of which is annexed below, is circulated for the information and guidance of all judicial officers. Attention is called to the necessity for seeing that all stamps are punched and registered before they are received or acted on. As petitions have to be taken in open Court, some person should be in attendance there to punch and register the stamps in presence of the Judge immediately before the petitions are handed to him. At the time of punching the stamps, this officer should write his name and the date across them.

Circular Order issued by the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, No. 5 of October 1878.

It having been brought to the notice of the Board that the provisions of Section 30 of the Court Fees Act VII of 1870, regarding the cancellation of stamps, and the rules prescribed by Government on the same subject, are not in all cases strictly observed, the Board believe that it will be useful to recapitulate and publish collectively the several rules and orders which have from time to time been issued for the guidance of all officers concerned.

2. Every Court and officer before whom a document requiring a stamp under the Court Fees Act is produced, is bound to see that the figure-head of the stamp is punched out and destroyed before taking action on the document (Government of India's Order, Financial Department, No. 831, dated 31st January 1874; Board's Circular Order No. 4 of February 1874).

3. After a case is decided, the record-keeper of every Court is required to punch a second hole on each stamp, distinct from the first, and to note the date of his doing so at the same time. The second punching should not remove so much of the stamp as to render it impossible or difficult to ascertain its value or nature. If the hole which was first punched is round, the second hole should be either square or triangular (Government of India's order, Financial Department, No. 1763, dated 24th July 1873; Board's Circular Order No. 3, August 1873, and No. 3 of October 1873).

4. In the case of copies, certificates, or other similar documents liable to be stamped under the Court Fees Act, the Court or office issuing them is required, before issue, to cancel the labels affixed to them by punching out a portion of the label in such a manner as to remove neither the figure-head nor that part of the label upon which its value is expressed; and as an additional precaution, the signature of the officer attesting the document, with the date, should be written across the label and upon the paper on either side of it (Government of India's Order No. 3373, dated 24th September 1875; Board's Circular Order No. 4 November 1875).

5. An impression apparently exists that the hole which is punched by the issuing Court or office on the stamp-label affixed to copies, certificates, &c., under the order cited on the preceding paragraph, does away with the necessity of cancellation by punching out the figure-head, under Section 30 of the Act, by the Court or office in which the copy or certificate, &c., may be produced or filed; but this view is incorrect, and it will be readily understood that the orders in question cannot override the express provision of the Act.

6. It will therefore be observed that, under the orders now in force, all court fee stamps must be punched at least twice if they go into the record room,—first, there is the punch required by Section 30 of the Act; and, secondly, the square or triangular punch of the record-keeper. But if a stamped copy of a document is filed with the record in a judicial proceeding, it must be punched three times,—first, by the issuing Court or office; secondly, by the receiving Court or office; and finally, by the record-keeper.

7. The heads of courts or offices in which stamps are used or filed are required to cause an inspection to be made, at least once a quarter, of all papers and documents in the records of the Court or office that require adhesive labels, in order to ascertain that the stamps have been properly punched and defaced, and have not been subsequently removed from the documents in which they were used (Board's Circular Order No. 3 of October 1873, and 7th of November 1875).

NOTIFICATION.—ACCOUNTS AND FINANCE.

Simla, the 14th May 1880.

No. 461.—In consequence of the increased cost of the war in Afghanistan as now estimated, the Governor-General in Council has determined to borrow 313 lakhs of rupees, being the amount required for the construction of Productive Public Works in 1880-81.

The following notification is therefore published :—

FOUR-AND-A-HALF PER CENT. LOAN, 1880.

His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor-General in Council has resolved to borrow three crores and thirteen lakhs of rupees for the public service in the following manner.

2. Promissory Notes will be issued for the said amount in the form annexed to this Notification, being the form of the notes of The Transfer Loan, 1879, of which Loan the notes to be now issued will form a part. All the conditions which apply to notes of the first form of The Transfer Loan, 1879, will apply to the notes to be now issued.

3. Tenders for the whole or any part of the said amount of three crores and thirteen lakhs of rupees will be received by the Comptroller-General from this date to noon of Monday, the 14th of June 1880.

4. Each tender must be addressed, in the form annexed to this Notification, to the Comptroller-General, Treasury Buildings, Calcutta, and enclosed in a sealed cover superscribed "Tender for the Four-and-a-half Per Cent. Loan, 1880." If the tenderer is not resident in India, he must name an agent resident in India to whom a letter of allotment may be issued, if any part of the loan is allotted to such tenderer.

5. Each tender must be accompanied by a receipt from one of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, or one of their branches, or from an officer in charge of some public treasury, or by a cheque on a banker in Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, or by Government Promissory Notes made payable to the Comptroller-General, for not less than one hundredth, or, if the tender be for less than five lakhs of rupees, then for not less than one-fiftieth part of the tender. This deposit of one or two per centum will be forfeited if the allotment is not fully taken up; otherwise, if the deposit is in cash, it will be treated as in part payment of the last instalment. A cash deposit may, after acceptance of the tender in support of which it is made, be replaced by a Government Promissory Note.

6. The rate at which a tender is made must not contain a fraction of an anna : if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

7. The rate at which each tender is made must be specified in rupees or rupees and annas : a tender in which no rate is thus specified, but a subscription is offered at the recorded minimum, or at some specified percentage in addition to the recorded minimum, will be rejected as null and void.

8. The minimum rate at which tenders will be accepted will be recorded under the signature of the Comptroller-General, and, when the tenders are opened, placed upon the table in a sealed envelope, but will not be declared unless some tender is rejected only because it is below the recorded minimum.

9. Tenders will be opened publicly at the Office of Comptroller-General in Calcutta, at noon on Monday, the 14th June 1880 : but the contents of the tenders will not be disclosed otherwise than as provided in clause 11.

10. Tenders at the recorded minimum rate, and at rates above the recorded minimum rate, will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rate; the amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate, in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders.

11. As soon as possible after the 14th June 1880, letters of allotment will be issued to those persons whose tenders are accepted in whole or in part, or to their agents, and an alphabetical list of the names of those to whom such letters of allotment are issued will be posted, for general information, at the Head-Offices of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay.

12. Payment of any accepted tender may be made to the account of the Government in the Head-Office of one of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, or in any branch of any of these Banks, or into any public Treasury or Treasuries in India which may be named in the tender.

13. Accepted tenders must be paid, in four equal instalments, as follows :—

One-fourth on or before Friday, the 25th June 1880;
One-fourth on or before Monday, the 26th July 1880;
One-fourth on or before Friday, the 27th August 1880;
One-fourth on or before Monday, the 13th September 1880 :

but the whole or any part of any accepted tender may be paid at any time after receipt of the letter of allotment.

14. Interest upon each payment will be promptly paid in advance, at the rate of four-and-a-half per centum per annum, from the date of such payment to the fourteenth day of September 1880.

15. Scrip receipts for instalments paid will be given by the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, or their branches, or by the officers in charge of the Government Treasuries at which payment is made. These receipts will, as soon as possible, be exchanged for Promissory Notes issued under this Notification.
